Keyed up by weeks of cam-

000 Pennsylvania voters trooped to the polls today for another primary election.

National and state office candidates were absent from the ballots, but spirited local battles were being fought. Special precautions, especially in the larger cities, were taken to assure honesty and to maintain order.

Interest in Three Cities
While elections of local importance were being held in every section of the state, those in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, and Scranton grabbed the focus of the spotlight.
Twenty-two cities will elect mayors this fall and in many of them the issue was being settled today.

Starting increases in Democratic registration stood out as one of the important sidelights of the primary.
The minority party of the state apparently has boosted its enrollment above the million mark for the first time in history. Official registra-

Early voting was the rule in many sections of New Castle and Lawrence county today, as a result of the al-

Many dahlias gardens about the ful blooms are to be seen at the

Despite the fact that the pri-on their jobs throughout the day.

All of them were busy with affairs pertaining to their office.

Attitude Of Frick Coal Co. Vital Problem

(International News Service)
UNIONTOWN, Pa., Sept. 19.—
Two paramount questions were on the lips of thousands of idle miners today as the Western Pennsylvania bituminous coal workers' "holiday"
despite President Roosevelt's signing of the soft coal code.

These questions were:
1. "What is the Frick company going to do?"
2. "What will the president do if the Frick company refuses to sign the code?"
The first query arose as the result of confusion over the status of the H. C. Frick Coal Co. company which took no action in the pre-agreement negotiations at Washington.

Anthony Cavalcante, personal informant of Gov. Gifford Pinchot in the bituminous region, said that definite decision on union recognition stands between the men and the end of the strike. The Frick company has been anti-union for 40 years.

authority boards are to be set up under the provisions of the code signed yesterday by President Roosevelt.

To these the president will appoint 11 persons. In addition the government is interested in obtain-

HAVANA, Sept. 19.—Troops loyal to the new government of President Ramon Grau San Martin this morning reoccupied the town of Moron, Camaguey Province, which was seized by a small rebel band under Juan Blas Hernandez last night. It was announced today by number 100 men, and who are headed for Havana, 400 miles distant.

Blas Hernandez, army headquar-strikes in the region of Ciego de Avila, in Camaguey Province. But the rebel leader has many friends near Ciego de Avila and the gov-raise a larger insurgent force, rejected his proposal and intends to fight.

After a trial before Judge R. L.

meister not guilty on a charge of malice in shooting to cattle and directed that the costs be paid by Lawrence county.
Clarence Black, the prosecutor in the case claimed that he had taken a horse to Hofmeister to be shod at his shop near the Harbor. It was claimed that the horse was unruly
and that Hofmeister had struck it.
The horse fell down, breaking his neck.
Hofmeister denied that he had struck the horse, claiming that it had thrown itself during the shoe-

no way to blame for the mishap.

Election Returns

Primary election returns will be flashed on the screen in North Mercer street at The News building
tonight, as soon as available.

With the large number of candidates in the primary contests today, election boards may be somewhat delayed in completing the count, but results will be given by The News just as fast as any are available.

In New Castle the voting booths do not close until eight o'clock, daylight savings time.

News with returns will call No. 4000 tonight.

Fair Draws Throng On Opening Day

There isn't any political excitement on the Harlansburg road three miles east of New Castle. There's another kind of excitement, and it will last for three days. The New Castle Fair opened today, packed to the limit with entries, and from the favorable smiles of Old Sol it does look as if this year's fair will get a break.

There are so many horses out
there this year that the management has been hard pressed to find barn space. In addition to one of the largest groups of harness racers ever gathered together here
there are thirty runners, that is race
horses that are ridden by jockeys.
This year the fair is serving two courses of horse racing and each course is going to be served hot.

Nothing Empty
At noon there wasn't a booth, a barn space or a stock stall empty.
Everything was full and a number of temporary quarters were hastily erected. The midway has so many entries that they extend for yards past what the ordinary midway does and the same thing goes for the exhibition halls and the other spots
of interest.

This year the fair management determined to give the fans the biggest value for their money they have ever had and a trip around the fair early today shows it. While opening day is never the largest day in attendance figures, there was a good crowd present this afternoon.

Wednesday and Thursday night
there will be amateur boxing tournaments held in front of the grand stand with eight fast bouts on each card. Wednesday afternoon and evening the races are on, with some fast steppers out to break the track records. As a humorous attraction on the track there will be mule races.

The fair's open today and it will be open for three days. It is well worth your time and whatever money you can afford to spend out there for this year the fair is "on."

Primary Draws Out Heavy Vote In City-County

BALLOTS IN CITY

County Districts Also Reported Piling Up Large Vote Today

With ideal weather prevailng and scores of work-

heavy vote seems to be indicated today. At noon almost every precinct reported an unusually heavy vote for the early hours and the afternoon hours saw the numbers increasing.

The last-minute rush to register, bringing the total registration to over 13,000, will probably result in a total vote of not less than 11,000
cast, with the proportion of about 8 to 1 Republican. The vote for the other parties is scattering and will total but few.

In the county precincts and in the boroughs as well as in the large evinced a large interest in the county results, and there is indica-

piled.

Voting Machine Troubles Galore In Pittsburgh

Herron Declares Situation

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Sept. 19.—Mayor
John S. Herron today declared that Pittsburgh's municipal primary election might be "invalidated" because of the wholesale breakdown of voting machines and confusion over the usage in districts where they did work.

After conferring with Judges Am-

about the vote machine collapse,
Mayor Herron said:
"I guess we will have to set the election aside. People everywhere in the city cannot vote."

"The judges are sending for the county commissioners. The count feels this whole question is their job.
If the commissioners don't act, the court indicated it will."

Shortly after Herron's statement,
Judge James H. Gray sent for the county commissioners. He said if they did not come into court "I'll send an officer for them."

Herron is one of five candidates seeking nominations in the primary for mayor. He is opposed by two Republicans. Two Democrats seek

Election Returns

Primary election returns will be flashed on the screen in North Mercer street at The News building
tonight, as soon as available.

With the large number of candidates in the primary contests today, election boards may be somewhat delayed in completing the count, but results will be given by The News just as fast as any are available.

In New Castle the voting booths do not close until
eight o'clock, daylight savings time.

Election boards, correspondents, etc., calling The News with returns will call No. 4000 tonight.

Fair Draws Throng On Opening Day

There isn't any political excitement on the Harlansburg road three miles east of New Castle. There's another kind of excitement, and it will last for three days. The New Castle Fair opened today, packed to
the limit with entries, and from the
favorable smiles of Old Sol it does
break.

There are so many horses out
there this year that the management has been hard pressed to find
barn space. In addition to one of the largest groups of harness racers ever gathered together here
there are thirty runners, that is race
horses that are ridden by jockeys.
This year the fair is serving two courses of horse racing and each course is going to be served hot.

Nothing Empty
At noon there wasn't a booth, a barn space or a stock stall empty.
Everything was full and a number
of temporary quarters were hastily erected. The midway has so many entries that they extend for yards
past what the ordinary midway does
and the same thing goes for the exhibition halls and the other spots
of interest.

This year the fair management
determined to give the fans the biggest value for their money they have ever had and a trip around the fair
early today shows it. While opening day is never the largest day in attendance figures, there was a good crowd present this afternoon.

Wednesday and Thursday night
there will be amateur boxing tournaments held in front of the grand stand with eight fast bouts on each card. Wednesday afternoon and evening the races are on, with some fast steppers out to break the track
records. As a humorous attraction on the track there will be mule
races.

The Fair's open today and it will be open for three days. It is well worth your time and whatever
money you can afford to spend out
there for this year the fair is 'on.'

Ed. Hofmeister Is Found Not Guilty

County Directed To Pay The Costs In Case Brought By Clarence Black

After a trial before Judge R. L.
Hildebrand at court yesterday afternoon a jury found Edward Hofmeister not guilty on a charge of malicious mischief to cattle and directed that the costs be paid by Lawrence county.

Clarence Black, the prosecutor in
the case claimed that he had taken a horse to Hofmeister to be shod at his shop near the Harbor. It was claimed that the horse was unruly
and that Hofmeister had struck it.
The horse fell down, breaking its neck.

Hofmeister denied that he had struck the horse, claiming that it had thrown itself during the shoeing operation, and that he was in no way to blame for the mishap.

Primary Draws Out Heavy Vote In City-County

MAY CAST 11,000
BALLOTS IN CITY

County Districts Also Reported Piling Up Large Vote Today

With ideal weather prevailling and scores of workers out with automobiles, a heavy vote seems to be indicated today. At noon almost every precinct reported an unusually heavy vote for the early hours and the afternoon hours saw the numbers
increasing.

The last-minute rush to register,
bringing the total registration to
over 13,000, will probably result in a total vote of not less than 11,000
cast, with the proportion of about 8 to 1 Republican. The vote for the other parties is scattering and
will total but few.

In the county precincts and in the boroughs as well as in the large municipality of Ellwood, there is evinced a large interest in the county results, and there is indication at noon of a heavy vote being piled.

Voting Machine Troubles Galore In Pittsburgh

Herron Declares Situation
May Invalidate Election Of Day

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Sept. 19.—Mayor
John S. Herron today declared that Pittsburgh's municipal primary election might be "invalidated" because of the wholesale breakdown of voting machines and confusion over their usage in districts where they did work.

After conferring with Judges Ambrose B. Reid and James H. Gray
about the vote machine collapse,
Mayor Herron said:
"I guess we will have to set the election aside. People everywhere in the city cannot vote."

"The judges are sending for the county commissioners. The court feels this whole question is their job.
If the commissioners don't act, the
court indicated it will."

Shortly after Herron's statement,
Judge James H. Gray sent for the county commissioners. He said if they did not come into court "I'll
send an officer for them."

Herron is one of five candidates
seeking nominations in the primary

PREPARING MORE CODES FOR PRESIDENT

Street Railway Code Acted Upon

President To Get Code Governing Street Car And Bus Employees

CONSTRUCTION CODE IS BEING PREPARED

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—National Recovery Administration Hugh S. Johnson today prepared to speed more than a score of miscellaneous codes to the White House in the next ten days.

Opening his drive to dispose of codes which have been delayed by the coal fight, Johnson approved over to the street railway and bus industry of the nation.

48-Hour Week.

The code carried the endorsement of more than 75 per cent of the industry scattered business. As presented by the industry, it called for a 48-hour week for motormen and other trainmen and bus drivers and a 40-hour week for office workers.

Another code embracing the long distance bus transportation industry is expected to be prepared within the next week.

Deputy Administrator Muhl, in charge of the construction industry code affecting 5,000,000 workers received word that officials of the construction association will be ready for a conference on the code during the week. Muhl said every effort would be made to quickly bring the many branches of the industry under the blue rule.

SET UP PLANS FOR OPERATION OF COAL CODE

The two code enforcement boards are the bituminous coal labor board and the bituminous coal labor board. The industrial board will consist of four members designated by the division code authority of division No. 1; two members designated by division code authority No. 2; one member each designated by code authorities No. 3, No. 4 and No. 5, and five members who have been appointed by the president.

Three Members.

The main coal labor board will consist of 18 individuals who will serve, except in disputes between divisions, as labor boards of three members each. Two of these three-member labor boards will be assigned to duty in division No. 1, and one board in each of the other four divisions of the industry.

Each local board is to consist of one man designated by the majority of labor organizations within the division, one member designated by the operators of the division and one to be selected by the president.

The divisional code authorities for each of the five districts set up under the code will have one member selected by the president, who sits in at meetings and does not vote. Each of these presidential appointees sits in with three votes, however, on the national bituminous coal industrial board.

The code stipulates that the national bituminous coal labor board

city and the regulation of improvements in an orderly manner.

The decision to recommend the structure was arrived at on the basis of the plan proposed by Morris Knowles, Inc., expert engineers employed by the city in 1927 to make a survey of the traffic problems of the city, especially with regard to bridges across the Neshannock creek. These engineers after an intensive survey recommended the North street bridge, which has been constructed, the proposed viaduct, and a bridge at Lawrence street.

The commission in accordance with this expert recommendation and also the desire to make needed, beneficial, permanent improvements of this character, recommended the structure because of the indicated favorable opportunity.

A recommendation of the planning commission is essential to the approval of the request for funds made to the public works construction board of the National Industrial Recovery Act.

Another matter before the commission was the petition to council of residents of West South street, which is located between Atlantic avenue and Greenwood street, for a change of name, because of the difficulty experienced in locating it, due to the fact that it is separated from the main part of the street by the Shenango river and a wide stretch of land. The commission recommended that the petition of residents of the street be granted by council and that the name of the street be changed.

tion figures were not available as the voters moved upon the polls today. Last year's registration total of 3,912,071, however, gives some idea of the volume of votes being cast.

Philadelphia Split

Philadelphia, home of the Vaco organization, was split over the election of a city controller and a treasurer. Edward Merchant, head of the organization's support for controller and treasurer Bernard Samuelson, for controller.

But the opposition, which has the backing of independent Republicans and Democrats, as well as the support of Gov. Gifford Pinchot and former mayor Harry Mackey, is strong. S. Davis Wilson, who is choice for controller while Will B. Hadley aspires to the office of treasurer.

Pittsburgh Battle

Probably one of the most interesting of the bitterest battle in Pittsburgh's history is that city's mayoralty race. State Senator James J. Coyne has pinned hopes of continuing his political reign there on Mayor John S. Herron, successor to the late Charles W. Kling, who resigned under pressure to escape jail term.

Herron's opponents are Register of Wills Joseph N. Mackrell and Councilman P. J. McCardle who have campaigned for the destruction of "Coyneism."

The big Democratic registration was expected to show its strength in Pittsburgh where William N. McNair is regarded as the strongest candidate advanced by the party in years. John M. Henry, an attorney, opposes McNair in the primary with the backing of an independent group.

Scranton expected to finish its mayoralty contest today. Mayor Fred K. Derby and Councilman Stanley J. Davis are engaged in one of the bitterest conflicts ever waged by two bona fide Republicans for the municipality's highest office.

Firemen Find Still At Blaze

Damage Of $200 Results In Seventh Ward Home From Overheated Still

On answering an alarm from Box 78, at 11:20 Monday night, firemen found a big still in the cellar of the home occupied by Alexander Frank, of rear 312 Montgomery avenue, had caused the fire, the report of Assistant Fire Chief James E. Thomas, stated. Damage of $200 resulted from the blaze, which resulted when the still became overheated, setting fire to the woodwork above.

Three other alarms were answered late Monday afternoon and evening, no damage resulting in the other instances.

At 4:05, the seventh ward firemen were called to extinguish a small fire in the flooring of the Cherry street bridge.

At 5:50, an alarm from Box 16, called Central companies to 115 Diamond Way, where a truck owned by the South Side Coal Co., took fire while a part was being welded.

The damage was slight.

At 8:55, jelly which had been placed on the stove at the home of Joe Viggiano, of 509 Friendship street, boiled dry. An alarm was sounded from Box 54. There was no damage other than to the jelly.

Morgenthau Asks Farm Loan Boards Show More Speed

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—Aroused by the slowness with which farm loans are being completed, Henry Morgenthau, Jr., farm credit governor, today told his field force to "cut red tape and get action, or give way to those who will."

Declaring he had "inherited the present system," he said various branches and units of the farm credit organization appeared to be "just building up technicalities" and that there was "too much red tape."

County Going Ahead With Viaduct Plans

County commissioners are expecting shortly to make application for federal money with which to build the Croton avenue viaduct. County Solicitor John P. Lookhart is preparing the necessary papers and as soon as they are completed the application will be forwarded to the proper officials.

No definite action has been taken on the proposed new courthouse, but commissioners have the matter under consideration.

Paper Ballots Sent.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 19.—Paper ballots were ordered sent to all voting districts in Pittsburgh where voting machines were reported broken down in an order dispatched to Maj. William T. Rees of the bureau of elections, by Judge James H. Gray this afternoon.

Taxicabs were ordered used to speed the paper ballots to their destinations.

Judge Gray further instructed the board of elections to send paper ballots to all voting booths so the voters would be on hand if the voting machine broke down.

The order came on the heels of a warning from District Attorney Andrew T. Park that riots would take place in a number of districts before the day was over unless the paper ballots were sent out to replace the machines.

Simultaneously, Mayor John S. Herron, one of three seeking the Republican nomination for mayor, reiterated his statement that he supposed the election would have to be "invalidated" because "many persons were unable to vote." He said he had been advised by counsel such a move was illegal.

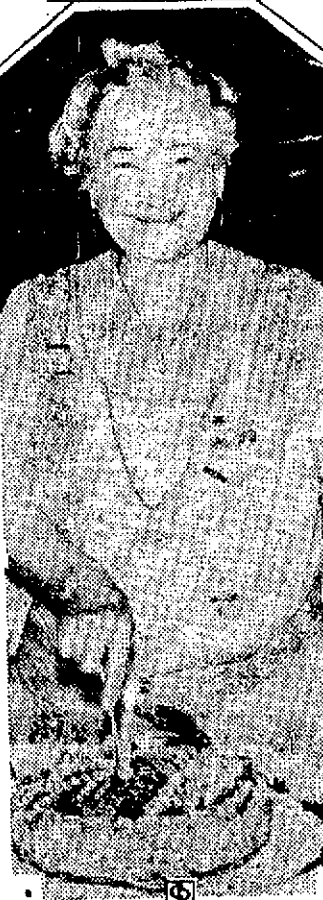

COLD WEATHER DUE HERE BY SEPT. 30

According to records of the Weather Bureau for the past 20 years, the average date for the first freezing weather here is September 30. Thousands of motorists who put off buying an anti-freeze till the last minute will be caught unprepared, when the cold snap strikes. And many of them will pay for their carelessness. Frozen radiators and cracked engine blocks cost money.

This year put in Eveready Prestone before the freeze. It won't evaporate or boil away. And at the new low price of $2.95 a gallon, it's the most economical anti-freeze you can buy. In addition to giving dependable, all-winter protection against freezing, Eveready Prestone is definitely good for your car. It reduces the rusting-action of water in the cooling-system by 75% to 95%.

*Eveready Prestone is approved by all car manufacturers. Fully guaranteed by National Carbon Co., Inc., New York, N. Y.

Mrs. Ernestine Schumann-Heink, the 72-year-old songstress, is very fond of referring to herself as "just an old peasant mother." Mme Schumann-Heink recently sang twice daily in an exhibition in Cleveland, and has been asked to go to Washington to help the campaign of the NRA.

Her home is in California, and she is motoring across the country with her son, George, to aid President Franklin D. Roosevelt in his war on depression. She declares the president is the "Messiah of the United States," and pleads with everyone to aid his policies in every way possible.

National Drug Heads Attacks Barroom Plans

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—"Spiritus frumenti" will be sold and always have been sold by drug stores for medicinal purposes, but the American drug store isn't going to be turned into a barroom with the repeal of prohibition.

With this statement, John A. Goode, Asheville, N. C., as president of the National Association of Retail Druggists, today disposed of the liquor situation as it affects the pharmacist.

In his report to the association's annual convention, Goode exploded the popular myth that drug stores handle everything but drugs. As a matter of fact, he said, only six per cent of the total of drug store trade is in sundries, such as sandwiches and rubber balls.

spectators. This is particularly true in the precincts south of Washington street. Even with the crowds present, no disorder was reported at press time.

The voters of the various parties are nominating candidates today for some of the most important offices in the county. The interest of the public seems to have been centered more on sheriff and district attorney than in some other fights, although the register and recorder battle has attracted some attention in the past 10 days.

Other Offices

In addition to these offices the voters will nominate a jury commissioner, a school director and a city controller. In the first, third and fourth wards aldermen will be nominated, and in addition to all these election officers will be named.

While there are many candidates on the ballot, it should not be a hard battle to count, inasmuch as there are only two offices in which more than one candidate is to be named, namely city council and school board. Election boards are asked to aid in giving the public the returns by calling 4000, The News, as soon as they have completed their count for the various offices.

Inasmuch as the polls do not close until eight o'clock tonight, there will be no returns available until about nine, and even these will be scattered and incomplete. As fast as returns are secured The News will show them on a screen in front of the building on North Mercer street.

Johnson said, however, that he expects coal, mined under the new wage and hour conditions set up in the code, to rise "markedly" in price. He has said prices "may rise two dollars a ton for all I care."

The two code enforcement boards are the bituminous coal industrial board and the bituminous coal labor board. The industrial board will consist of four members designated by the division code authority No. 1; two members designated by division code authority No. 2; one member each designated by code authorities No. 3, No. 4 and No. 5, and five members who have been appointed by the president.

Three Members.
The main coal labor board will consist of 18 individuals who will serve, except in disputes between divisions, as labor boards of three members each. Two of these three-member labor boards will be assigned to duty in division No. 1, and one board in each of the other four divisions of the industry.

Each local board is to consist of one man designated by the majority of labor organization within the division, one member designated by the operators of the division and one to be selected by the president.

The divisional code authorities for each of the five districts set up under the code will have one member selected by the president, who sits in at meetings and does not vote. Each of the three votes, however, on the national bituminous coal industrial board.

Coal Labor Board.
The code stipulates that the national bituminous coal labor board will be convened only upon call of the national recovery administrator, ex-officio chairman of the national coal industrial board, "in the event that:

"1. A controversy involves employers and employees of more than one division.

"2. The decision of a divisional labor board affects operating conditions of more than one division either directly or because of its effect upon competitive marketing, or

"3. In the opinion of the administrator the decision of a divisional labor board involves the application of a policy affecting the general public, or the welfare of the industry as a whole."

Meanwhile negotiations continued between coal operators and the united mine workers in an effort to work out differential tonnage rates for various coal seams, especially in the Appalachian region.

Great Britain Gathering Force For Debt Talks

(International News Service)
LONDON, Sept. 19.—Official confirmation that Great Britain is marshaling her forces for renewed foreign debt discussions in Washington was forthcoming today.

Announcement was made that Sir Ronald Lindsay will sail aboard the Majestic on September 27 to resume his ambassadorship. Sir Frederick Leith-Ross, comptroller of the treasury, also will sail next week.

PLANNING COMMISSION RECOMMENDS VIADUCT

city and the regulation of improvements in an orderly manner.

The decision to recommend the structure was arrived at on the basis of the plan proposed by Morris Knowles, Inc., expert engineers employed by the city in 1927 to make a survey of the traffic problems of the city, especially with regard to bridges across the Neshannock creek.

The engineers recommended the North street bridge, which has been constructed, the proposed viaduct and a bridge at Lawrence street.

The commission in accordance with this expert recommendation, and also the desire to make improvements of this character, recommended the favorable opportunity.

A recommendation of the planning commission was essential to the approval of the request for funds made to the public works construction board of the National Industrial Recovery Act.

Another matter before the commission was the petition to council of residents of West South street, which is located between Atlantic avenue and Greenwood avenue, for a change of name, because of the difficulty experienced in locating in, due to the fact that it is separated from the main part of the street by the Shenango river and a wide stretch of land.

The commission recommended that the plea of the residents of the street be granted by the city and that the name of the street be changed.

Philadelphia Split.
Philadelphia, home of the Vare organization, was split over the election of a city controller and a treasurer. Edward Merchant has the organization's support for controller and Councelman Bernard Samuel for treasurer.

But the opposition, which has the backing of independent Republicans and Democrats, as well as the support of Gov. Gifford Pinchot and former mayor Harry Mackey, is strong. S. Davis Wilson is the choice for controller while Will B. Hadley aspires to the office of treasurer.

Pittsburgh Battle.
Probably one of the most interesting, if not the bitterest battle in Pittsburgh's history is that city's mayoralty race. State Senator James J. Coyne has pinned hopes of continuing his political reign there on Mayor John S. Herron, successor to the late Charles W. Kline, who resigned under pressure to escape a jail term.

Herron's opponents are Register of Wills Joseph N. Mackrell and Councelman P. J. McArdle who have campaigned for the destruction of "Coyneism."

The big Democratic registration was expected to show its strength in Pittsburgh where William N. McNair is regarded as the strongest candidate advanced by the party in years. John M. Henry, an attorney, opposes McNair in the primary with the backing of an independent group.

Scranton expected to finish its mayoralty contest today. Mayor Fred K. Derby and Councelman Stanley J. Davis are engaged in one of the bitterest conflicts ever waged by two bona fide Republicans for the municipality's highest office.

Firemen Find Still At Blaze

Damage Of $200 Results In Seventh Ward Home From Overheated Still

On answering an alarm from Box 78, at 11:20 Monday night, firemen found a big still in the cellar of the home occupied by Alexander Frank, of rear 312 Montgomery avenue, had caused the fire, the report of Assistant Fire Chief James E. Thomas, stated.

Damage of $200 resulted from the blaze, which resulted when the still became overheated, setting fire to the woodwork above.

Three other alarms were answered late Monday afternoon and evening, no damage resulting in the other instances.

At 4:05, the seventh ward firemen were called to extinguish a small fire in the flooring of the Cherry street bridge.

At 5:50, an alarm from Box 16, called Central companies to 115 Diamond Way, where a truck owned by the South Side Coal Co. took fire while a part was being welded.

The damage was slight.

At 8:55, jelly which had been placed on the stove at the home of Joe Viggiano, of 509 Friendship street, boiled dry. An alarm was sounded from Box 54. There was no damage other than to the jelly.

Morgenthau Asks Farm Loan Boards Show More Speed

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—Aroused by the slowness with which farm loans are being completed, Henry Morgenthau, Jr., farm credit governor, today told his field force to "cut red tape and get action, or give way to those who will."

Declaring he had "inherited the present system," he said various branches and units of the farm credit organization appeared to be "just building up technicalities" and that there was "too much red tape."

County Going Ahead With Viaduct Plans

County commissioners are expecting shortly to make application for federal money with which to build the Croton avenue viaduct. County Solicitor John P. Lockhart is preparing the necessary papers and as soon as they are completed the application will be forwarded to the proper officials.

No definite action has been taken on the proposed new courthouse, but commissioners have the matter under consideration.

Paper Ballots Sent.
PITTSBURGH, Sept. 19.—Paper ballots were ordered sent to all voting districts in Pittsburgh where voting machines were reported broken down in an order dispatched to Maj. William T. Rees of the bureau of elections, by Judge James H. Gray this afternoon.

Taxicabs were ordered used to speed the paper ballots to their destinations.

Judge Gray further instructed the board of elections to send paper ballots to all voting booths so they would be on hand if the voting machine broke down.

The order came on the heels of a warning from District Attorney Andrew T. Park that riots would take place in a number of districts before the day was over unless the paper ballots were sent out to replace the machines.

Simultaneously, Mayor John S. Herron, one of three seeking the Republican nomination for mayor, repudiated his statement that he supposed the election would have to be "invalidated" because "many persons were unable to vote." He said he had been advised by counsel such a move was illegal.

COLD WEATHER DUE HERE BY SEPT. 30

According to records of the Weather Bureau for the past 20 years, the average date for the first freezing weather here is September 30. Thousands of motorists who put off buying an anti-freeze till the last minute will be caught unprepared, when the cold snap strikes. And many of them will pay for their carelessness. Frozen radiators and cracked engine-blocks cost money.

This year put in Eveready Prestone before the freeze. It won't evaporate or boil away. And at the new low price of $2.95 a gallon, it's the most economical anti-freeze you can buy. In addition to giving dependable, all-winter protection against freezing, Eveready Prestone is definitely good for your car. It reduces the rusting-action of water in the cooling-system by 75% to 95%.

*Eveready Prestone is approved by all car manufacturers. Fully guaranteed by National Carbon Co., Inc., New York, N. Y.

Is Grand Old Lady

Mrs. Ernestine Schumann-Heink. Mrs. Ernestine Schumann-Heink, the 72-year-old songstress, is very fond of referring to herself as "just an old peasant mother."

In reality she is very much the grande dame—the "grand old lady" of opera and the concert stage. Mme. Schumann-Heink recently sang twice daily in an exposition in Cleveland, and has been asked to go to Washington to help the campaign of the NRA.

Her home is in California, and she is motoring across the country with her son, George, to aid President Franklin D. Roosevelt in his war on depression. She declares the president is the "Messiah of the United States," and pleads with everyone to aid his policies in every way possible.

National Drug Heads Attacks Barroom Plans

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—"Spiritus frumenti will be sold and always have been sold by drug stores for medicinal purposes, but the American drug store isn't going to be turned into a barroom with the repeal of prohibition."

With this statement, John A. Goode, Asheville, N. C., as president of the National Association of Retail Druggists, today disposed of the liquor situation as it affects the pharmacist.

In his report to the association's annual convention, Goode exploded the popular myth that drug stores handle everything but drugs. As a matter of fact, he said, only six per cent of the total of drug store trade is in sundries, such as sandwiches and rubber balls.

spectators. This is particularly true in the precincts south of Washington street. Even with the crowds present, no disorder was reported at press time.

The voters of the various parties are nominating candidates today for some of the most important offices in the county. The interest of the public seems to have been centered more on sheriff and district attorney than in some other fights, although the register and recorder battle has attracted some attention in the past 10 days.

Other Offices.
In addition to these offices the voters will nominate a jury commissioner, three school directors and a city controller. In the first, third and fourth wards aldermen will be nominated, and in addition to all these election officers will be named.

While there are many candidates on the ballot, it should not be a hard ballot to count, inasmuch as there are only two candidates in which more than one candidate is to be named, namely city council and school board. Election boards are asked to aid in giving the public the returns by calling 4000. The News, as soon as they have completed their count for the various offices.

Inasmuch as the polls do not close until eight o'clock tonight, there will be no returns available until about nine, and even these will be scattered and incomplete. As fast as returns are secured The News will show them on a screen in front of the building on North Mercer street.

The guests at dinner included the present worthy matrons of the three chapters, present worthy patrons, and past matrons numbering twenty three. THE ANNUAL SLAUGHTER

THE LIND, Washington, Leader defines: "Americanism: Doing the daily dozen for health and trying to pass another car on a blind curve an hour later."

That is something more than a witticism. The recklessness of driving in this country amounts to a national tragedy. It is a constant menace to the lives of us all. It touches every pocketbook in a dozen different ways. And, in spite of aggressive and well-directed efforts to lessen highway accidents, the toll grows.

Passing on curves is one phase. So is disregarding signal lights and warning signs. So is driving at high speeds where conditions call for caution. So is one of the most fundamental and deep-rooted of driving ills—simple discourtesy.

Some time ago an insurance magazine carried a vivid editorial concerning a "Roman holiday" that was to take place. Thirty thousand people, of all ages and classes, were to be gathered in a field. Motor vehicles—private cars and trucks and taxis and buses—would drive in and roar about the field until all its occupants had been killed. The public would look on disinterestedly.

The only difference between that horrid event and the annual automobile accident toll is that we kill the thirty thousand people during 365 days instead of one, and in ten thousand different places instead of the single field. The result is identically the same. And it is going to occur this year and the next and every year after that until the average motorist awakens to his responsibility.

Remember that "Roman holiday." It will be worth thinking about next time you contemplate passing on a curve, or doing any of the scores of things that may lead to death, injury and destruction.

FAITH IN AMERICA

It is doubtful if any country on the face of the earth can equal Spartan courage displayed by the American people during the last three years of the depression. Teeming millions of Asia and India live in indescribable poverty and squalor while their masters enjoy great wealth and splendor. But it is their life—they have never known anything else. In this country it is different. We are of a different race, a thinking and acting people, accustomed to the comforts and many of the luxuries, and millions of even the bare necessities of a normal existence. It reduced men and women from comparative affluence to stark pauperism, seared the soul of American humanity as has never been done before. Yet in the face of this appalling blight our people have never lost hope. Their faith in America and American institutions has not wavered. Their trust in the ultimate economic recovery of the country was sublime, and that trust is bearing fruit today. It is courage equal to that of the Spartans of old, and in no section of the country has that courage been more clearly demonstrated than in the small towns and countryside. Now the sun shines brighter, and our smiles are becoming broader every day.—Chronicle, Toledo, Iowa.

HOUSEWORK AND GOLF

A scientist, brave beyond belief, comes forward with the assertion that housework is just as good as golf, tennis or swimming for the woman who wants to keep physically fit. No doubt he can substantiate his claim, but that will not alter the preference of most women for what somehow seems naturally to fall into the classification of recreation. There may be little or no difference in the physical effect, but the mental reaction is vastly different.

The differentiation between sports and the work is a strange and rather vague one. Frequently a man or woman will engage in some activity almost to the point of exhaustion and yet call it play. The same or a less amount of effort devoted to one's vocation becomes, in the vernacular, hard work.

So when it is summoned up the only true difference is in the mental attitude, and while there are many persons, usually successful, who have formed the excellent habit of looking upon their work as play, the average individual man or woman, will prefer to take exercises under the guise of pleasure.

BYRD'S SECOND TRIP

That Admiral Byrd, planning a second trip into Antarctica, intends to make a searching exploration of that little known area, is indicated by some of the equipment he will take with him.

In addition to an airplane, he will carry motor sleds, tractors and 150 dogs. He expects to do "ten times as much flying this time as before," he said in announcing the early start of his expedition.

It is to be expected that some interesting discoveries will be made and a great deal of scientific data collected.

The expedition is made possible by private contributions. Its backers are performing a valuable public service, the extent of which can not yet be known. Admiral Byrd, who ended a two-years' stay in the Antarctic about four years ago, is a veteran explorer, and the expedition under his direction will be in capable hands.

NERVE SHOWN IN ASKING FAVORS

Is your nerve in asking favors measured only by what you can get out of the other fellow?

If the one of whom you ask a favor does not turn you down, you think you are justified in anything he will stand for—is that it?

It does not matter to you that the article for which you ask is expensive and should not be given out without adequate returns on it.

It does not seem to matter that the other fellow, when he gives it, expects to get something commensurate from the article he lets you have.

There may have been a time when your influence might have gotten him a good many sales if he had the material to sell.

But that time has gone by.

It is really for your own use that you ask for what he has to give; and when he sends in quantity you are gleefully bragging about it.

Why?

Because you know that your associates could not get what you did. Just to show what you consider your power to command, you could not help mentioning what you got and what you wanted it for.

But you gave yourself away by it, and now folk are on their guard.

LLOYD GEORGE'S FRIEND

Scott, the explorer, applied to Lloyd George for assistance for his last polar expedition. The chancellor, as Lloyd George then was, advised Scott to see a certain rich landowner who was interested in polar research. The explorer did so, and again called on Lloyd George.

"He's giving me a thousand," was the reply, "but he had undertaken to raise 50,000 pounds if I can persuade you to come with me, and I'm to have a million if I can manage to leave you there."

GOLF'S BEST DAY

Golf is a very trying game. Beyond the slightest doubt. Few men its mastery can claim. Or pry its secrets out. One day the drives are straight and true.

The next a slice appears. Man wears a smile the first nine through.

Then almost ends in tears. But to the best and worst of men. However they stroke the ball. Come glad occasions, now and then. When long and short punts fall.

At times the sport is torture grim. The harder men may try. The more the game will punish him. With shots that go awry.

Then suddenly will come a change. Too subtle to define. And in a happy way but strange. His ball will hold the line.

But of the thrills the game bestows. 'Tis this that takes the crown. The day that strangely comes and goes. When all the punts run down.

No man alive can quite explain. Golf's weird, mysterious way. Sometimes the best of skill is vain. And good shots go astray.

Then follow moments when in spite. Of fudge and looking up. A golf ball, in the dub's delight. Falls dead beside the cup.

But stranger still to all who play. And never understood. Is that unlooked-for glorious day. When every putt is good. (Copyright, 1933, Edgar A. Guest.)

Rural School Directors Meet

Hear New Legislation Explained At Meeting In Union Township

FINE MUSICAL PROGRAM GIVEN

Members of the Lawrence County School Directors Association heard the provisions of new legislation, particularly as it applies to the fourth class districts, at a meeting held in the Union Township high school, last evening.

County Superintendent of Schools, John C. Syling, was the principal speaker of the evening.

Prisoner Wants To Dictate Who Operates On Him

Meanwhile Sheriff Frank Johnson Is Acting As Special Nurse At Jail

John Cameron, who was serving a term in the workhouse on a larceny charge and for whom an application for parole was recently made on the grounds that he was in need of an operation for gall bladder trouble, is requiring considerable attention at the county jail. He was taken to a hospital shortly after his arrival and x-rays were taken. There is said to have been some difference of opinion among physicians as to his trouble. He wanted his own doctor to operate, but had no money to pay him. The county was willing to engage the regular hospital staff, but refused to pay the doctor Cameron wanted. He was then taken back to the county jail with no definite action in view, unless he consents to the staff operation. Meanwhile the sheriff is getting up two or three times a night to supply ice and other requisites of his prisoner.

"One night when I was at the movies I noticed how exquisitely lovely Miriam Hopkins' skin looked in the close-ups—how its beauty stirred you. What wouldn't I give to have a skin as lovely as that!"

I don't know what it is to spend a lonely evening—or to go without the compliments that every girl wants to have. I certainly wish I'd realized sooner how very attractive lovely skin is—and what to do to have it!"

"This Soap the Screen Stars use is a Wonderful Aid to Complexion Beauty" SCIENTISTS DECLARE

Here's the Reason... Skin grows old-looking through the gradual loss of certain elements Nature puts in skin to keep it youthful. Gentle Lux Toilet Soap, so readily soluble, actually contains such precious elements—checks their loss from the skin.

SAVINGS — $11 to $21

The fact that you stopped to read this is evidence that you're interested in saving from $11 to $21. We don't blame you, we'd do the same thing.

If your eyes bother you, or your glasses need changing, why spend $30 to $50 when you can get Rosenthal's quality glasses for only $9.00.

You know we have had some people come into our office who were skeptical when we told them their glasses would cost only $9.00. WHY? Because they were quoted prices between $20 and $30 for the same quality elsewhere. They were under the impression that our glasses were cheaper in quality. BUT THIS IS NOT TRUE. The only difference is in the price. Our usual high standard of refraction and quality remain the same as when we charged $20 to $30, previous to the time we established the $9.00 price.

Since we have operated on the $9.00 basis, hundreds and hundreds of people have taken advantage of Rosenthal's Optical service and SAVED FROM $11 to $21. Many of these people could just as quickly pay $20 to $30, but they realized we did not sacrifice quality when we established the $9.00 price.

DON'T be misled... DON'T spend more than is necessary. DON'T get less for your money. Come to Rosenthal, where a personal examination, frames and lenses cost you only $9.00 complete—no more.

Glass Company Strike Ended

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Sept. 19.—An agreement for revision of wages and hours, effected after days of negotiation between employers and a workers' committee, today brought 300 strikers back to their posts at the J. T. & A. Hamilton Glass company after a five-day strike.

Representatives of the Glass Bottle Blowers' association, of which many Hamilton employees are members, also participated in the conference. Besides granting of union recognition, demands the employers are said to have agreed to meet included an eight-hour day and 40-hour week.

Figures which show that the manufacture of bicycles increased 375 per cent over July of last year also indicate that there was considerable falling off.—The Los Angeles Times.

FOR LESS THAN THE COST OF YOUR DAILY PAPER

YOU sit down to read... press a button... there's a light, all ready for your evening's enjoyment. Such a convenience, such a luxury... but so cheap it is commonplace!

If you paid for electricity as you used it, you would then realize more than ever how cheap it really is. Your living room, for example, can be lighted two full hours for about what you would pay for a daily paper. A few cents will do your washing or keep your rugs clean for days. And so on down the line, practically every service electricity performs may be paid for with pennies.

A penny is a large sum when invested in electricity; for nearly every service it performs may be paid for with pennies. If you paid for electricity as you used it you would realize more than ever that no money you spend brings greater return in comfort and convenience.

Red Cross Field Man Is Visitor
Gus Meyer Visits Chapter In Interests Of Coming Roll Call

Gus Meyer, Red Cross Field Representative, from National Headquarters, visited the Lawrence County Chapter of the American Red

Cross, Monday, in the interest of the coming annual Roll Call of the Chapter.

The activities of the National Red Cross are dependent on the contributions from the various Chapter areas. During the past year, Mr. Meyer pointed out, the sum of over four million dollars was expended in relief work, disaster relief, etc., at an administrative cost of $223,000.

The need for assistance to maintain both the local chapter and the National Red Cross is just as great today as it was during the World War, and the National Red Cross is hopeful that the people of Lawrence County will respond just as splendidly as they have in the past.

Thousands of dollars worth of assistance was rendered in Lawrence County during the past year by the American National Red Cross, in the disbursement of flour, and clothing.

The path of glory leads but to the tax collector's office.

HALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 19.—While passengers aboard ships in the harbor watched from rails and state-rooms, fire of undetermined origin today partially destroyed a concrete dock shed on pier 2 here, causing damage which may reach $500,000.

Every available piece of fire apparatus in Halifax was called out to fight the blaze, one of the most spectacular along the Halifax waterfront in years.

Glass Company Strike Ended

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Sept. 19.—An agreement for revision of wages and hours, effected after days of negotiation between employers and a workers' committee, today brought 300 strikers back to their posts at the J. T. & A. Hamilton Glass company after a five-day strike.

Representatives of the Glass Bottle Blowers' association of which many Hamilton employees are members, also participated in the conference. Besides granting of union recognition, demands the employers are said to have agreed to meet included an eight-hour day and 40-hour week.

Figures which show that the manufacture of bicycles increased 375 per cent over July of last year also indicate that there was considerable falling off.—The Los Angeles Times.

FOR LESS THAN THE COST OF YOUR DAILY PAPER

YOU sit down to read . . . press a button . . . there's a light, all ready for your evening's enjoyment. Such a convenience, such a luxury . . . but so cheap it is commonplace!

If you paid for electricity as you used it, you would then realize more than ever how cheap it really is. Your living room, for example, can be lighted two full hours for about what you would pay for a daily paper. A few cents will do your washing or keep your rugs clean for days. And so on down the line, practically every service electricity performs may be paid for with pennies.

A penny is a large sum when invested in electricity; for nearly every service it performs may be paid for with pennies. If you paid for electricity as you used it you would realize more than ever that no money you spend brings greater return in comfort and convenience.

Gus Meyer Visits Chapter In

Interests Of Coming

Roll Call

Gus Meyer, Red Cross Field Representative, from National Headquarters, visited the Lawrence County Chapter of the American Red

Cross, Monday, in the interest of the coming annual Roll Call of the Chapter.

The activities of the National Red Cross are dependent on the contributions from the various Chapter areas. During the past year, Mr. Meyer pointed out, the sum of over four million dollars was expended in relief work, disaster relief, etc., at an administrative cost of $223,000.

The need for assistance to maintain both the local chapter and the National Red Cross is just as great today as it was during the World War, and the National Red Cross is hopeful that the people of Lawrence County will respond just as splendidly as they have in the past.

Thousands of dollars worth of assistance was rendered in Lawrence County during the past year by the American National Red Cross, in the disbursement of flour, and clothing.

The path of glory leads but to the tax collector's office.

Must Help Merchants Meet
Increased Costs in Signing Of NRA Code

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—With codes of fair competition proclaimed for the major basic industries of the nation, the NRA was within sight of its original code goal today.

Approval of the bituminous coal code by President Roosevelt, with conditions, brought to seven the list of basic industries now in the Blue Eagle fold, and enabled Hugh S. Johnson, NRA administrator, to turn to trade lesser industries.

Officials Confident
Beginning with the cotton textile code, which has absorbed many branches of the textile industry, the key industries under code include wool textiles, lumber, steel, oil, automobile and coal.

Officials of the NRA, confident that the road to complete coding of industry is now down hill, pointed out that at the beginning of the campaign three months ago Johnson declared the biggest task was to bring the key industries into the movement.

The master retail code assumed the spotlight, with Johnson announcing he will now make an intensive effort to bring this problem to a head within a week.

Despite the battle over price-fixing among retailers and between NRA officials, Johnson hoped to avoid long delay, with most retail stores working under the temporary presidential agreement, the NRA administrator holds that all must be brought under a code to avoid hardship.

Will Meet Situation
Not only did Johnson confront the question of price-fixing, but the ability of small retail establishments to bear the increased cost of the code appeared. Officials hold the new loan policy of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation together with exceptions planned in the code will meet the situation.

Other important codes either in the NRA mail or expected soon include: Motion picture industry, boot and shoe manufacturing, rubber manufacturing, silk industries, motor bus and city transit industries, and anthracite coal.

Street car, subway and local bus lines are included in a code approved by Johnson. Action by President Roosevelt is expected soon.

Big Buying Drive
A hearing is in progress on the automobile retail code, hearing is set for Sept. 28 on an aluminum code, and the rubber and anthracite codes will be brought to a hearing soon. Anthracite operators were expected here this week for a conference.

More than 3,500,000 employees now are under permanent codes, it was estimated.

The NRA administrator also was laying plans for a sustained, national buying drive to start business on a new upward spiral.

In the meantime, he was planning to transform the NRA from a code writing organization to a body to administer the permanent codes. Despite the setback occasioned by the fight over soft coal, NRA officials believe virtually all codes will be completed by November 1.

WORKING GIRLS TELL
(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 18.—The NRA has brought a lot of new business to New Jersey seashore resorts, according to a survey made here among working girls to discover what they do with the extra day off under the 40-hour week.

A large majority said they made a week-end of it at seashore points such as Atlantic City, Ocean City, Wildwood and Cape May.

Others said they do shopping on the extra day off, some reported putting in the time golfing, fishing and gardening while another group said they caught up on their sleep.

The right amount of inflation, of course, is just enough to bring your stock back to the price you paid.

Fire Damages Baron Building

Loss Of $500 Is Sustained In Blaze Monday Afternoon
On Moravia Street

FIRE BREAKS OUT TWICE IN BUILDING

Central and No. 5 firemen were called out twice Monday afternoon to extinguish a blaze in the building owned by Louis Baron of 1221 Moravia street. The loss was around $500, covered by insurance.

At 1:35 an alarm was sounded from box 55, and the two departments answered. Fire Chief Thielen and the 3 truck crew were fighting a fire in Union township at the time.

The fire was first discovered in the rooms occupied by Louis Landis on the second floor, and is believed to have started from a gasoline stove. It was blazing briskly when firemen arrived, the gasoline in the stove and a can nearby having exploded, hurling the fire through several rooms.

Firemen thought they had the blaze extinguished, but at 2:40 it broke out anew from a spark underneath the roof, and a second call was sent in. The second blaze was quickly extinguished.

Jewish Holidays To Be Observed

Special Services Will Mark The Observance Of Rosh Hash-
arah In Temple

Temple Israel, Highland and Moody avenues, will conduct its special services for Rosh Hashanah (the Jewish "New Year") on Wednesday evening, Sept. 20, at 8 o'clock and Thursday morning, Sept. 21, at 10 o'clock. Rabbi Avery Jones, Grossfield officiating. The topic of the sermon for Wednesday evening will be "Holism Today," and the topic of the sermon for Thursday morning will be "Understanding."

The prayers in the ritual for both services will be rendered with the inspiring traditional High Holiday melodies, and the shofar (ram's horn) will be blown during the Thursday morning service.

The flowers that will adorn the pulpit during the Rosh Hashanah services have been offered in loving memory of Abe Marlin, by his children.

Rosh Hashanah—The New Year. With sunset on Wednesday, September 20, the Jewish people will begin its celebration of the festival New Year, known in Hebrew as Hashanah. On this solemn day, Jewry the world over will usher in the year 5694 with prayers and meditation. Orthodox Jews designate two days for the observance of this holiday. The Jewish New Year bears a special appeal to every generation of Jews, and especially to Jewry today.

Originally, the Hebrew New Year marked the opening of the agricultural and economic year in Palestine. It began in autumn, because with fall there followed in regular succession the seasons of the sowing of seeds, of the ripening of the corn, of the harvest and gathering of the fruits. As a matter of fact, this day was not expressly called New Year's day, but it was undoubtedly thus regarded by the Jews at a very early period. It was celebrated by resting from all labor, as it still is today, and offering special sacrifices at the Temple of Jerusalem. But it was distinguished from the observance of the other holidays by the blowing of shofar, the ram's horn—a custom still prevailing in the synagogue.

However, as the agricultural background faded away from Jewish life, the rabbinic authorities shifted the New Year's day to memorialize the beginning of creation, and endowed this holiday with a most solemn meaning. Based upon scriptural passages, it became the judgment day of the Jewish calendar—the day upon which God judges all the inhabitants of the earth.

For this reason another designation of the day is yom haddin, "The Day of Atonement." The days intervening between New Year's day and the Day of Atonement are called "The Ten Days of Penitence," during which the opportunity is afforded to reflect finally on and repair the wrongs done during the year; if the repentance is sincere forgiveness is gained on the culminating day of the holy season, "The Day of Atonement."

The injunction to blow the trumpet on this day was to call the people to remembrance before the Lord. In the course of time, this ceremony of blowing the shofar became the central feature of the elaborate religious service conducted on the day. Just as the shofar called the people to remembrance before the Lord, so also were its sounds to arouse the people to their shortcomings and to their duties in which they may have failed. The day is called on this account yom hazikkaron, "The Day of Memorial."

The New Year's day in the passing of the centuries has thus come to embody the great religious ideas of divine justice and human responsibility. As the beginning of the Jewish religious year it emphasizes the religious uniqueness of the Jewish people, the servant of the one God, the priest people of humanity.

THIS means that the Chesterfield formula—that is, the leaf and the manufacturing formula—is different from that of other cigarettes.

For a cigarette to be milder and to taste better, it has to have in it ripe, mild, mellow tobacco, and the right quantity of the right kinds of Turkish tobacco. Then the cigarette has to be made right.

Fire Damages Baron Building

Loss Of $500 Is Sustained In Blaze Monday Afternoon
On Moravia Street

FIRE BREAKS OUT TWICE IN BUILDING

Central and No. 5 firemen were called out twice Monday afternoon to extinguish a blaze in the building owned by Louis Baron of 1221 Moravia street. The loss was around $500, covered by insurance.

At 1:35 an alarm was sounded from box 55, and the two departments answered. Assistant Fire Chief Thomas and the B truck crew were fighting a fire in Union township at the time.

The fire was first discovered in the rooms occupied by Louis Landis on the second floor, and is believed to have started from a gasoline stove. It was blazing briskly when firemen arrived, the gasoline in the stove and a can nearby having exploded, hurling the fire through several rooms.

Firemen thought they had the blaze extinguished, but at 2:40 it broke out anew from a spark underneath the roof, and a second call was sent in. The second blaze was quickly extinguished.

Jewish Holidays To Be Observed

arah In Temple

Temple Israel, Highland and Moody avenues, will conduct its special services for Rosh Hashanah (the Jewish "New Year") on Wednesday evening, Sept. 20, at 8 o'clock and Thursday morning, Sept. 21, at 10 o'clock. Rabbi Avery Jones Grossfield officiating. The topic of the sermon for Wednesday evening will be "Heroism Today," and the topic of the sermon for Thursday morning will be "Understanding."

The prayers in the ritual for both services will be rendered with the inspiring traditional High Holiday melodies, and the Shofar (ram's horn) will be blown during the Thursday morning service.

The flowers that will adorn the pulpit during the Rosh Hashanah services have been offered in loving memory of Abe Marlin, by his children.

Rosh Hashanah—The New Year.

With sunset on Wednesday, September 20, the Jewish people will begin its celebration of the festival of New Year, known in Hebrew as Rosh Hashanah. On this solemn day, Jewry the world over will usher in the year 5694 with prayers and meditation. Orthodox Jews designate two days for the observance of this holiday. The Jewish New Year bears a special appeal to every generation of Jews, and especially to Jewry today.

Originally, the Hebrew New Year marked the opening of the agricultural and economic year in Palestine. It began in autumn, because with fall there followed in regular succession the seasons of the sowing of seeds, of the ripening of the corn, of the harvest and gathering of the fruits. As a matter of fact, this day was not expressly called New Year's day, but it was undoubtedly thus regarded by the Jews at a very early period. It was celebrated by resting from all labor, as it still is today, and offering special sacrifices at the Temple of Jerusalem. But it was distinguished from the observance of the other holidays by the blowing of Shofar, the ram's horn—a custom still prevailing in the synagogue.

However, as the agricultural background faded away from Jewish life, the rabbinic authorities shifted the New Year's day to memorialize the beginning of creation, and endowed this holiday with a most solemn meaning. Based upon scriptural passages, it became the judgment day of the Jewish calendar—the day upon which God judges all the inhabitants of the earth.

For this reason another designation of the day is yom haddin, "The Day of Atonement." The days intervening between New Year's day and the Day of Atonement are called "The Ten Days of Penitence," during which the opportunity is afforded to reflect finally on and repair the wrongs done during the year; if the repentance is sincere forgiveness is gained on the culminating day of the holy season, "The Day of Atonement."

The injunction to blow the trumpet on this day was to call the people to remembrance before the Lord. In the course of time, this ceremony of blowing the shofar became the central feature of the elaborate religious service conducted on the day. Just as the shofar called the people to remembrance before the Lord, so also were its sounds to arouse the people to their shortcomings and to their duties in which they may have failed. The day is called on this account yom hazikkaron, "The Day of Memorial."

The New Year's day in the passing of the centuries has thus come to embody the great religious ideas of divine justice and human responsibility. As the beginning of the Jewish religious year it emphasizes the religious uniqueness of the Jewish people, the servant of the one God, the priest people of humanity.

PRESENTS RULES TO GOVERN LICENSED PLACES

Pitts Announces Rules To Govern License Holders

Apply To Both Wholesalers And Retailers Who Are Holding Licenses

No Person Can Be Prevented From Buying On Account Of Race Or Color

Ever since the new beverage licensing act went into effect, holders of licenses have been perplexed as to just what was required of them. They knew in a general way that they were not supposed to sell to minors, over the bar or solicit orders for beer, but there was no authoritative set of rules and regulations to guide their conduct.

County Treasurer William O. Pitts has been compelled to answer so many inquiries that he has thought it best to formulate a set of rules and regulations to govern all holders of licenses, whether wholesale or retail. After a careful study of the law he has devised a set of rules which it is believed will give a thorough understanding of the matter.

Rules and Regulations.

These rules and regulations are announced by Treasurer Pitts today and are as follows:

All beverages manufactured outside of the state of Pennsylvania must be affixed by a beverage tax stamp or a Pennsylvania crown to the original container in which all beverages are placed, received, stored, shipped or handled. Such stamps or crowns shall be affixed to each individual container or beverage by the distributor within 48 hours after such beverages are placed therein or received by them.

It shall be unlawful to fortify, adulterate, contaminate or in any wise to change the character or purity of the beverages from that as originally marketed by the manufacturer.

It shall be unlawful to transport

any beverages except in the original containers.

All beverage delivery vehicles shall bear the name and address of the distributor in letter no smaller than four inches in height.

Sales By Distributors.

No distributor shall purchase, receive or resell any beverages except in the original containers. Provided, that no such beverage sold or delivered shall be consumed upon the premises of the distributor or in any place provided for such purpose by such distributor.

Sales By Retailers.

No retailer shall purchase or receive any beverages except in original containers, and thereafter, may break the bulk upon the licensed premises and sell or dispense the same for the use and consumption only, however, in and upon the premises so licensed. Provided, however, that such retailer may sell such beverages in the original containers to be carried from the premises by the purchaser thereof.

No retailer shall maintain any bar at which beverages are served to customers, or sell any beverages for consumption on the licensed premises except in a room or rooms or place on the licensed premises at all times visible and accessible to the general public; but this section shall not be interpreted to prohibit the sale of beverages at a lunch counter with seats and chairs permanently fastened thereto, if such counter is in an eating place as herein defined. A retailer licensed to sell beverages in a hotel or clubhouse may, however, sell and deliver such beverages in any room of such hotel or clubhouse occupied by a bona fide, registered guest or member entitled to purchase the same.

Must Frame Licenses.

All licensee shall frame his or its license under a transparent substance and display same in a conspicuous space so that it may easily be read in his or its place of business and no licensee shall authorize such sale until this section has been complied with.

All licensed places must contain

Healthy Hair will grow only on a Healthy Scalp

Keep your scalp in good condition by shampooing regularly with a thick lather of Cuticura Soap and warm water. Rub thoroughly. If there is any dandruff or irritation, the shampoo should be preceded by an application of Cuticura Ointment.

Soap 25c. Ointment 25 and 50c.

Proprietors: Potter Drug & Chemical Corporation, Malden, Mass.

in the room that beverages are dispensed 40 chairs not including seats at a lunch counter.

It is unlawful to sell, trade or barter in beverages between the hours of 12 o'clock midnight of any Saturday and 6 o'clock in the forenoon of the following Monday, eastern standard time.

Things of Value Not to Be Offered for the Return of Certain Articles.

It shall be unlawful for any person to sell beverages, to offer or give anything of value, as a premium, for the return of caps, stoppers, corks, stamps or labels taken from any bottle, case, barrel or package containing such beverages, or to offer or give anything of value, as premium or present, to induce the purchase of such beverages or for any other purpose whatsoever in connection with the sale of such beverages. Provided, however, that this section shall not apply to the return of any moneys specifically deposited for the return of the original containers to the owners thereof.

No Race Distinctions.

No person can be prohibited from buying beverages at your place of business regardless of race or color. The room or place of business where beverages for consumption are to be served must at all times be visible and accessible to the general public. This section does not effect incorporated clubs and secret organizations.

Unlawful Sales.

It shall be unlawful for any licensee, or his or its servants, agents or employees:

To sell, furnish or give any beverages to any person visibly intoxicated, or to any insane person, or to any minor (under 21 years of age).

To sell, furnish or give any beverages to any person on any day on which a general, municipal, special or primary election is being held.

In the case of retailers, to sell or offer to sell any beverages for consumption on the premises where sold to any person on credit, except on credit extended by a hotel or club to a bona fide, registered guest or member. No right of action shall exist to collect any claim for credit extended contrary to the provisions of this clause.

To sell, offer to sell or furnish any beverages to any person on a pass-book or store order, or to receive from any person any goods, wares, merchandise or other articles in exchange for beverages.

To hawk or peddle any beverages in this commonwealth.

Seaman Finds This Delicious Cereal Relieves Constipation

Here is an unsolicited letter from Mr. Darragh:

"I have been going to sea for the past fourteen years. Every trip, I underwent severe headaches, nervousness, and sleeplessness. Tried all sorts of remedies, and received only temporary relief.

"So hearing about Kellogg's ALL-BRAN thought I would get a box, which I did. That was six months ago, haven't been without it at home, and when I go to sea a box of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is always with me."

—George D. Darragh, 1914 82nd Avenue, Oakland, California.

Tests show ALL-BRAN contains two things for common constipation: "Bulk" to exercise the intestines; vitamin B to help tone the intestinal tract. ALL-BRAN also supplies iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of lettuce. Inside the body, it forms a soft mass, which gently clears the intestines of wastes.

How much pleasanter this is than taking pills and drugs—so often harmful. Two tablespoonsful of ALL-BRAN daily will correct most types of constipation. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Serve as a cereal or use in cooking. Get the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

PRESENTS RULES TO GOVERN LICENSED PLACES

Pitts Announces Rules To Govern License Holders

Apply To Both Wholesalers And Retailers Who Are Holding Licenses

Ever since the new beverage licensing act went into effect, holders of licenses have been perplexed as to just what was required of them. They knew in a general way that they were not supposed to sell to minors, over the bar or solicit orders for beer, but there was no authoritative set of rules and regulations to guide their conduct.

County Treasurer William O. Pitts has been compelled to answer so many inquiries that he has thought it best to formulate a set of rules and regulations to govern all holders of licenses, whether wholesale or retail. After a careful study of the law he has devised a set of rules which it is believed will give a thorough understanding of the matter.

Rules and Regulations. These rules and regulations are announced by Treasurer Pitts today and are as follows:

All beverages manufactured outside of the state of Pennsylvania must be affixed by a beverage tax stamp or a Pennsylvania crown to the original container in which all beverages are placed, received, stored, shipped or handled. Such stamps or crowns shall be affixed to each individual container or beverage by the distributor within 48 hours after such beverages are placed therein or received by them.

It shall be unlawful to fortify, adulterate, contaminate or in any wise to change the character or purity of the beverages from that as originally marketed by the manufacturer.

It shall be unlawful to transport

any beverages except in the original containers.

All beverage delivery vehicles shall bear the name and address of the distributor in letter no smaller than four inches in height.

Sales By Distributors.

No distributor shall purchase, receive or resell any beverages except in the original containers. Provided, that no such beverage sold or delivered shall be consumed upon the premises of the distributor or in any place provided for such purpose by such distributor.

Sales By Retailers.

No retailer shall purchase or receive any beverages except in original containers, and, thereafter, may break the bulk upon the licensed premises and sell or dispense the same for the use and consumption only, however, in and upon the premises so licensed: Provided, however, that such retailer may sell such beverages in the original containers to be carried from the premises by the purchaser thereof.

No retailer shall maintain any bar at which beverages are served to customers, or sell any beverages for consumption on the licensed premises except in a room or rooms or place on the licensed premises at all times visible and accessible to the use and accommodation of the general public; but this section shall not be interpreted to prohibit the sale of beverages at a lunch counter with seats and chairs permanently fastened thereto, if such counter is in an eating place as herein defined. A retailer licensed to sell beverages in a hotel or clubhouse may, however, sell and deliver such beverages in any room of such hotel or clubhouse occupied by a bona fide, registered guest or member entitled to purchase the same.

Must Frame Licenses. All licensee shall frame his or its license under a transparent substance and display same in a conspicuous space so that it may easily be read in his or its place of business and no licensee shall authorize such sale until this section has been complied with.

All licensed places must contain

It is unlawful to sell, trade or barter in beverages between the hours of 12 o'clock midnight of any Saturday and 6 o'clock in the forenoon of the following Monday, eastern standard time.

Things of Value Not to Be Offered for the Return of Certain Articles: It shall be unlawful for any person to sell beverages, to offer or give anything of value, as a premium, for the return of caps, stoppers, corks, stamps or labels taken from any bottle, case, barrel or package containing such beverages, or to offer or give anything of value, as premium or present, to induce the purchase of such beverages or for any other purpose whatsoever in connection with the sale of such beverages: Provided, however, that this section shall not apply to the return of any moneys specifically deposited for the return of the original containers to the owners thereof.

No Race Distinctions.

No person can be prohibited from buying beverages at your place of business regardless of race or color.

The room or place of business where beverages for consumption are to be served must at all times be visible and accessible to the general public. This section does not effect incorporated clubs and secret organizations.

Unlawful Sales.

It shall be unlawful for any licensee, or his or its servants, agents or employees, to sell, furnish or give any beverages to any person visibly intoxicated, or to any insane person, or to any minor (under 21 years of age).

To sell, furnish or give any beverages to any person on any day on which a general, municipal, special or primary election is being held. In the case of retailers, to sell or offer to sell any beverages for consumption on the premises where sold to any person on credit, except credits extended by a hotel or club to a bona fide, registered guest or member. No right of action shall exist to collect any claim for credit extended contrary to the provisions of this clause.

To sell, offer to sell or furnish any beverages to any person on a pass-book or store order, or to receive from any person any goods, wares, merchandise or other articles in exchange for beverages.

CARRIES ALL-BRAN ON EVERY VOYAGE

Seaman Finds This Delicious Cereal Relieves Constipation

Here is an unsolicited letter from Mr. Darragh:

"I have been going to sea for the past fourteen years. Every trip, I underwent severe headaches, nervousness, and sleeplessness. Tried all sorts of remedies, and received only temporary relief.

"So hearing about Kellogg's ALL-BRAN thought I would get a box, which I did. That was six months ago, haven't been without it at home, and when I go to sea a box of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is always with me."—George D. Darragh, 1914 32nd Avenue, Oakland, California.

Tests show ALL-BRAN contains two things for common constipation: "Bulk" to exercise the intestines; vitamin B to help tone the intestinal tract. ALL-BRAN also supplies iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of lettuce. Inside the body, it forms a soft mass, which gently clears the intestines of wastes.

How much pleasanter this is than taking pills and drugs so often harmful. Two tablespoonsful of ALL-BRAN daily will correct most types of constipation. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Serve as a cereal or use in cooking. Get the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Mrs. Watkins' direction, will begin their weekly sewing work for the needy on October 1 and the girls' sewing class, will meet Saturdays under Miss Williams' and Miss Weiner's direction.

Services are to be held nightly by the superintendent, assisted by local pastors and laymen. Tonight the Rev. R. J. Fredericks, East New Castle minister, will speak; on Wednesday the superintendent will preach; on Thursday the Fishermen's class of the First Baptist church will take charge; on Friday the young people of the Nazarene church will assist, and on Saturday, a praise and testimony meeting will be held. All services will open at 7:30 p. m.

Oklahoma Court Thrown Open To Public For First Time As Jury Is Selected

By JAMES L. KILGALLAN, International News Service Staff Correspondent

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Sept. 18.—United States Attorney Herbert K. Hyde today unleashed the federal government's opening blast against the twelve defendants on trial for the $200,000 kidnaping of Charles F. Urschel, multi-millionaire Oklahoma City oil man.

Hyde began his opening statement to the jury by reading the federal indictment charging Harvey J. Bailey and Albert L. Bates, notorious desperadoes, and ten others, one of them a woman, with the kidnaping of Urschel.

The machine gun guarded courtroom was thronged as Hyde, a stocky, swarthy-complexioned man, launched into an explanation of the government's purpose at this trial which is the first under the "Lindbergh" abduction law.

The jury having been selected late yesterday, the public was admitted this morning for the first time. Fully half of the spectators were women. They were surprised upon reaching the upper floors of the federal building to find deputy marshals armed with sawed-off shotguns and rifles. Every person was challenged and forced to show a pass before being admitted. Nearly everybody was searched.

tured induced by a hyperpyrexator machine, Dr. Eugene B. Traut, in charge of this strange of all "sleeping sickness" cases, hopes to at least awaken Patricia.

Her residence in suburban Oak Park has been especially wired with power facilities to make possible the latest experiment. To her wrists will be fastened electrodes and when the current is applied her temperature will rise to fever level.

The "fever" will be brought on gradually, it was explained, and when the proper temperatures are reached they will be maintained for prescribed periods in the hope of stimulating an awakening.

All other medical approaches to the illness ended in complete failure. Blood transfusions, ultra-violet ray treatments and scrums have been tried, but to no avail.

New Castle Is Preparing For Ellwood Game

Colonial Beats Elder A. C., 1-0

"WHITEY" NICKUM BACK ON SQUAD

New Castle high school football team is not going to be idle very much this week. With Coach Ganzy Benedict and his Ellwood City high football team due to make their appearance at Taggart field Friday night there is cause for action in the New Castle camp. Ellwood served warning by trimming Union high's scrappy eleven Saturday 19 to 0.

Charles "Whitey" Nickum reported for football yesterday afternoon and will likely be used at an alternate. Coach Ganzy Benedict was well pleased with the way Charles James and Lane, and formed in the Braddock game, and does not want to break up his combination, but Nickum is a valuable man to have around, especially in the matter of throwing forward passes. Nickum will again call signals, and can be relied upon to come through in fine shape. Captain Walter Komine, the old pile driving fullback, is in fine shape and ready to go again.

The drill Monday afternoon was comparatively light for the regulars, but the reserves got a real workout. Quite a lot of time this week will be devoted to breaking up forward passes. Benedict, using the Notre Dame system will throw a number of passes. Bridenbaugh believes that he has a system that will stop the aerial attack.

King Levinsky Beats Sharkey

Ex-Champion Unable To Cope With Blows Swung By Chicago Kingfish

By JOHN C. HOFFMAN
International News Service Sports Writer

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Only yesterday he was an incredible young man who sold fish on Maxwell St. and they were laughing because he would be in the same ring with Jack Sharkey, the ex-champion, but today they're telling about King Levinsky, the conqueror and master of this same Sharkey.

They're not laughing—now. Instead some 25,000 customers who paid $33,000 to see the Kingfish do what he was not expected to do, are recounting the seven rounds that saw the Sharkey man, a little older, a little less resilient, pounded until it seemed he would collapse. There was no doubt of the decision that moved the buffoon of the ghetto a little closer to wherever it is that he is headed for in the heavyweight-prize fight business. There were no tears in the Sharkey man's eyes when it was over. Instead, he stood with an understanding grin. His eyes focussed on the spectacle before him. It was not his night.

No man is really as brave and self-satisfied as he feels after finally having a tooth pulled.

He belongs to Our Suit and Overcoat Club—you should join.

Giants After One More Game To Cinch Flag

If Giants Win And Pirates Lose, National League Race Is Over

DECIDING GAMES PLAYED TODAY

By COPELAND C. BURG
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—Baseball's merry whirlwind today reached the stage where the sublime becomes the ridiculous, like a one armed tailor fashioning a pair of pants out of a vest pocket.

It seems the New York Giants haven't enough punch to win the national league pennant by taking another ball game, so they are just going to stand still and capture the flag by the simple progress of having the Pittsburgh Pirates lose one.

Thus, if you happen to be one of the Giants' pals, don't pay any attention to the New York-St. Louis game today and concentrate on Philadelphia, so in the event the Phillies happen to stumble on to victory you can throw your hat in the air and make the rafters ring with cheers from the great New Yorkers.

It's all rather complicated, but it was carefully explained to us that the secondplace Pirates are in the embarrassing position of having to win all their remaining games and the minute they drop a contest they hand the 1933 title to the Giants, like an English butler serving a cocktail.

Giants Stopped
The Giants were all set to officially take over the pennant yesterday when this person Bob O'Farrell bobbed up again. He is the castoff Giant now with the St. Louis Cardinals, who is always bothering.

He smacked a ball right at Fred Fitzsimmons' neck and that was the end of the New York pitcher for the day and Carl Hubbell, Giant ace, who followed, did not do so well. Anyway, Tex Carleton, the Cardinal hurler, limited the league leaders to seven hits and finally poked a single in the eighth scoring Leo Duracher, who had tripled. All this counted up to St. Louis 4, New York 3, and put the Giant's ultimate success over for at least another 24 hours.

Pirates Split
Pittsburgh split two games with Philadelphia. Paul Waner won for the Bucs 2 to 1 with a triple in the eighth, but Ed Holley gave the Pirates only four hits in the finale, the Phillies taking it, 6 to 0.

Van Lingle Mungo, Brooklyn pitcher, was aided in his victory over the Chicago Cubs 6 to 4 when Johnny Frederick homered with two on. Pitcher Fred Frankhouse proved better than St. Johnson and Boston's Braves downed Cincinnati, 8 to 2.

Sam Gray, St. Louis' Browns hurler supposed to have a sore arm and not good enough for Washington defeated the Senators 4 to 2 spacing the Nats' blows nicely.

Chicago's White Sox could only get two hits off Johnny Allen as the New York Yankees triumphed 6 to 1. But they collected nine blows off Charlie Ruffing in the night cap and downed the Yanks 4 to 3. Leslie Tietje, Chicago rookie, making his debut, was Ruffing's master. Lou Gehrig homered for New York in both contests.

Hildy in Shape
Two scratch hits that might have been avoided had Gardener Wes Ferrell moved faster robbed Oral Hildebrand of a no-hit success as Cleveland let down Boston's Sox, 6 to 0.

Cramer, Johnson and Higgins whacked home-run blows enabling the Athletics to snatch one from Detroit, 9 to 8.

Union Lineup To Be Shifted

Coach "Pop" Boyd Will Send Captain Georgacs To Fullback Position

EVANS CITY IS NEXT GAME

Union high school football team will go to Evans City Friday afternoon for its second game of the season, according to an announcement from Coach David M. Boyd today. Union hopes to take the measure of Evans City and thus even up for the defeat suffered at the hands of Ellwood City.

Coach Boyd plans some shifting of his players this week in an effort to add to the offense of the team. Captain Georgacs will be shifted from the line to fullback. He is a big powerful chap and is fast for his weight. He will no doubt make a very valuable fullback.

Todd Looks Good.
The halfback jobs will be taken care of by Monico and Morrison with Todd at quarterback. Todd looked very good in the Ellwood City game. He handled the team like a veteran. He is due to be one of the Union stars before the season is over.

It is likely that Gierlach will be shifted to tackle on the first team to replace Georgacs. No other replacements will be made, according to Boyd.

The regulars were given a rest Monday afternoon, but the remainder of the squad was put through a tough scrimmage session. Union does not want to be on the losing end again this season.

Bessemer Hopes To Win Second Game

Mahoning One Up In Five-Game Series For League Title

SNYDER MAY OPPOSE HUTNIC

Having dropped the first of the series with Mahoning A. A. Bessemer hopes to stage a comeback Wednesday when the second game of the series is played at Centennial field. The winner of the series will "cop" the championship of the Lawrence county league. Mahoning won the first half and Bessemer the last.

Before the game started Saturday there was a feeling that having played more consistently during the second half, Bessemer would win but they simply couldn't fathom the offerings of Paul McCullough when hits meant runs.

On the other hand four errors did not do Bessemer's Dick Nord any good. He allowed nine hits and forced six to hit the air but the breaks were with Mahoning and the Centennians romped off the field winners of the first game.

Taking the game from start to finish it was one of those kind that had the fans speculating as to what might happen any minute. Nord and McCullough, with a lot of smoke and a bundle of curves, took no chances on putting 'em down the trough.

W. Purovacki, left fielder; Valentin, right fielder; and T. Purovacki, third baseman for Bessemer, each batted two hits off McCullough. J. Purovacki, third baseman; Calipieri, catcher; Huff, second baseman; and Peretta, first baseman, got two hits each for Mahoning.

There were several spectacular hits, for instance, triples by Mash and Valentin and doubles by G. Stanley and T. Purovacki and with both teams owing a lot of heavy slugging their bats may get to working when the next game occurs Wednesday.

Some of the boys out Bessemer way are inclined to believe that Manager Sackey will send Snyder to the hill. He has batted consistently during the second half and if Steve Hutnic is available Nick Guevara will send him to the mound.

Hutnic, a seasoned veteran, batted splendidly in the Tigers-Mahoning clash and peculiar as it may seem Paul McCullough, now an ace for Mahoning, was a member of the Tigers staff but played first base.

One thousand people witnessed the first of the series and it is expected that twice that many will see the game starts at 5:15 p. m. D. S. T. tomorrow. Umpires Price, Ross, Moble and Bishop have been assigned by "Pick" Gillich to rule the game.

Yarocz Again Beats Dundee

Monaca Fighter Is Slowly Climbing Fistic Ladder; Meets Brouillard Next

By HYPE IGGOE
International News Service Sports Writer

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 18.—Louis Brouillard, new middleweight champion of the world, has a new "customer" and a fighting son-of-a-gun-cook he is.

Teddy Yarocz is his name and can he fight! He gave Vince Dundee, best of the middle weight contenders, a real drumming last night.

Yarocz earned a decision over Vince in Pittsburgh three weeks ago and they brought Yarocz into Dundee's back yard last night on a date that he couldn't do it again.

Teddy did it with deadly feistiness, some of them all but spilling Vince. Dundee made a superb rally in the third or fourth round but Yarocz had such a commanding lead in the first six rounds that only knockout could possibly bring victory to the brother of the former middleweight champion.

Few men have taken a smacking with finer courage than did Dundee. He was so spent when he put on his final charge his blows had little or no effect on the young lad from Pittsburgh.

Mickey Walker declared Brouillard is in for a fine night of torment when he meets his new fighter combat which is soaring across the skies.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Teddy Yarocz is richer in pocket and fame today as the result of his second meeting with Vince Dundee last night at Newark, N. J. After 10 rounds of glove hurling Teddy won the decision and pocketed $5,000. The gate receipts amounted to $9,000. The scrap was one-sided from the first until the eighth round. Dundee could not solve the Monaca lads style. It was the second time Vince lost to Teddy.

James Brown of Detroit, retiring president of the National Boxing association has asked the association to refuse recognition of national championship fights of less than 15 rounds duration. He suggested the need for keener attention to amateur boxers. "There follows," he said are keeping the boxing game alive in many cities "which is no fallacy."

When Bessemer and Mahoning clash Wednesday instead of hurling against each other, Paul McCullough and Steve Hutnic will be mates on the Mahoning outfit. If Hutnic doesn't go to the hill Paul will and Manager Martin of Bessemer may send Snyder to the mound. The game will probably draw several thousand fans.

Ellwood Priming For New Castle

Local Grid Squad Begins Hard Training For Clash With Old Rival

Steckman Is Lost For Game; Bettoni Suffers From Knee Injury

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 18.—Coach "Garry" Benedict's Ellwood City high grid squad began serious training Monday afternoon for what local people can savor the most important game of the season—the second clash following the resumption of relations with another "Red Hurricane" team of New Castle high, coached by Phil H. Bridenbaugh.

Both teams won their season opener last week. The Bridenbaugh coached combination trimmed the strong Braddock high team 20-0 in a night game and Ellwood high shut out a plucky Union Township team 19-0. To date there is no basis of comparison of the two eleven's, except what is apparent in their games.

New Castle high has the makings of another great team and should hit their full stride in about mid-season. It is the opinion of fans that it still lacks the smoothness and polish of last year's championship "Red Hurricane". Defensively the team is rated as better. It will develop in all ways as the season goes. It is known that the back field is not clicking entirely satisfactorily as yet. This may be remedied with the return of "Whitney" Nickum to the squad yesterday.

On the other hand Ellwood City is considered as an improved eleven over last year. There is a better degree of cooperation, spirit, and resolve to win. There is a good trio of ball carriers in the persons of "Wishy" Francis, the colored giant Al Beane, and Milton Luxenberg. The former two are excellent punners and passers and have succeeded in keeping the opposition guessing. Coach Benedict's team is a splendid pass receivers in Beane, Jeannette, and Bettoni who will be used to advantage.

Coach Benedict and Assistant Mike Ferraro had the squad fighting hard yesterday during the work-out. The team's weakness and faults were pointed out and the players were stressed. According to the attitude of the squad New Castle will have real time on their hands next Friday.

The only thing to spoil a fine day for the local team last night was the injury to Jack Steckman, right end respectively. Steckman broke a bone in his left hand and will be out of competition for at least six weeks. The team received an injury to his knee that kept him from practice yesterday. He is expected to report today. There will be a couple of skull drills on tap for the local squad this week.

Bessemer Hopes To Win Second Game

Mahoning One Up In Five-Game Series For League Title

SNYDER MAY OPPOSE HUTNIC

Having dropped the first of the series with Mahoning A. A., Bessemer hopes to stage a comeback Wednesday when the second game of the series is played at Centennial field. The winner of the series will "cop" the championship of the Lawrence county league.

Mahoning won the first half and Bessemer the last. Before the game started Saturday there was a feeling that having played more consistently during the second half, Bessemer would win but they simply couldn't fathom the offerings of Paul McCullough when his meat runs.

On the other hand four errors did not do Bessemer's Dick Nord any good. He allowed nine hits and forced six to hit the air but the breaks were with Mahoning and the Gangliemans romped off the field winners of the first game.

Taking the game from start to finish it was one of those kind that had the fans speculating as to what might happen any minute. Nord and McCullough, with a lot of smoke and a bundle of curves, took no chances on putting 'em down the groove.

W. Puromaki, left fielder; Valentine, right fielder; and T. Puromaki, third baseman for Bessemer, each bagged two hits off McCullough. J. Picarro, third baseman; Calipetri, catcher; Huff, second baseman; and Perretta, first baseman, got two hits each for Mahoning.

Snyder Vs Hutnic?

There were several spectacular hits, for instance, triples by Mash and Valentine and doubles by G. Stanley and T. Puromaki and with both teams owning a lot of heavy sluggers their bats may get to working when the next game occurs Wednesday.

Some of the boys out Bessemer way are inclined to believe that Manager Sankey will send Snyder to the hill. He has hurled consistent baseball during the second half and if Steve Hutnic is available Nick Cangle will send him to the mound.

Hutnic, a seasoned veteran, hurled splendid baseball in the Tigers-Mahoning clash and as it may seem Paul McCullough, now an ace for Mahoning, was a member of the Tigers staff but played first base.

One thousand people witnessed the first of the series and it is expected that twice that many will see the game starts at 5:15 p. m., D. S. T. tomorrow. Umpires: Price, Ross, McHale and Bishop have been assigned by "Pick" Glitch to rule the game.

Yarocz Again Beats Dundee

Monaca Fighter Is Slowly

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 19.—Lou Brouillard, the new middleweight champion of the world, has a new "customer" and a fighting son-of-a-sea-cook he is.

Teddy Yarocz is his name and can he fight! He gave Vince Dundee, best of the middle weight contenders, a real drumming last night.

Yarocz earned a decision over Vince in Pittsburgh three weeks ago and they brought Yarocz into Dundee's back yard last night on a dare that he couldn't do it again.

Teddy did it with deadly juries, some of them all but spilling Vince. Dundee made a superb rally in the three or four rounds but Yarocz had such a commanding lead in the first six rounds that only a knockout could possibly bring victory to the brother of the former middleweight champion.

Few men have taken a smacking with finer courage than did Dundee. He was so spent when he put on his final charge his blows had little or no effect on the young lad from Pittsburgh.

Mickey Walker declared Brouillard is in for a fine night of torment when he meets his new fighter comet which is soaring across the skies.

HUSKY PUGILISTS READY FOR ACTION

There'll be a lot of boxing gloves awhirl Wednesday and Thursday night at the Grandstand, Fair Ground, according to the pugilistic docket to satisfy the punch appetites of fans and fanettes. The first bout will start at 8:30 p. m. D. S. T. each night.

The docket calls for eight bouts each night and as it takes two to make a fight, the fans who like to see the gladiators hit, miss, duck and step will see 16 battles each night or 32 in all. They all belong to the A. A. U.

The card has been balanced evenly. There are spectacular A. A. U. performers scheduled for action each night. For instance George Bocco of Ellwood City will tackle Jack Smith of Ohio in a 160 pound bout the first night.

On the second night Custy Morini of Ellwood City will take on Sam Cretella and Tony Adamo, a New Castle boy will try to reverse a decision that Mike Olercheck won over him at Farrell a few weeks back.

Taleric vs Devlin
Another classy scrap arranged for the first night will find Johnny Visdak battling Mickie Cutic, district 112 pound champion. Yankee Pagley will tackle Johnny Tonoff who succumbed to the champ, Cutic, in their last appearance here.

Joey Evans of Ellwood City goes against Johnny Swanton of Youngstown, Thursday night and fans will see a hurricane of action when Tony Taleric meets Mickie Devlin. According to reports they are as classy a pair of 122 pounders as can be found around here.

All the boys who are docketed for action are reported to be in splendid physical condition. On each "fight night" they will be examined and weighed in at 8:30 p. m. and will rest until they're summoned to answer the first bell.

After 10 rounds of edge hurting Teddy won the decision and pocketed $5,000. The gate receipts amounted to $9,300. The scrap was one-sided from the first until the eighth round. Dundee could not solve the Monaco lads style. It was the second time Vince lost to Teddy.

Jack Sharkey, the loquacious Bostonian is two rounds down the pugilistic ladder this afternoon. Primo Carnera sent him down one step when he won the heavyweight crown and last night at Chicago King Levinsky won from the former Goo in 10 rounds at Chicago.

James Brown of Detroit, retiring president of the National Boxing association has asked the association to refuse recognition of national championship fights of less than 15 rounds duration. When Bessemer and Mahoning clash Wednesday instead of hurling against each other, Paul McCullough and Steve Hutnic will fight on the Mahoning outfit. If Hutnic doesn't go to the hill Paul will and Manager Martin of Bessemer may send Snyder to the mound. The game will probably draw several thousand fans.

Congratulations are in order for 15-year-old Jackie Westrope, who is shown receiving the congratulations of Louis Smith, general manager of Rockingham Park track, Salem, N. Coach Benedict has three splendid pass receivers in Beane, Jeannette, and Bettioni who will be used to advantage.

Coach Benedict and Assistant Mike Ferrare had the squad fighting mad yesterday during the workouts. The team's weakness and solution to remedy the same were stressed. According to the attitude of the squad New Castle will have real time on their hands next Friday night.

The only thing to spoil a fine day for the local team last Saturday was the injury to Jack Steckman and Bettioni, varsity left guard and right end respectively. Steckman broke a bone in his left hand and will be out of competition for at least six weeks. Bettioni received an injury to his knee that kept him from practice yesterday. He is expected to report today. There will be a couple of skill drills on tap for the local squad this week.

HOME FROM FAIR

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stapf and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. King have returned home from Joliet, Ill., where they visited their aunt Mrs. Nellie Orris and visited the Century of Progress at Chicago.

One of the interesting sights on their trip was the visit to the new prison at Joliet. They were given a special pass taking them all through and everything explained to them, at present they have 5000 confined in the prison.

The kitchen, the dining room and all were well kept, they also saw the bread being baked, washing of dishes and the convicts at their school, busy with their lessons. Eighteen bushels of potatoes are used for each meal. We were in the cell houses which were very interesting to all of us.

STOCKS

Stock Market Is Irregular

Metal Shares Move Higher; Rails, Utilities And Industrials Are Easy

OIL STOCKS ARE STRONGER TODAY

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The stock market continued to be an irregular affair today with the metal shares moving higher, while the rails, utilities and some of the pivotal industrial shares again were easy.

Home stake again was an outstanding feature rising about half a dozen points and generally stimulating Alaska, Juniper and Dominion to renewed activity on the upside. The copper mining shares were strong and fractionally higher on the news that Howe Sound had lifted its dividend rate to $1 from 40 cents.

Oil shares also were strong under the lead of Pure Oil, Standard Oil of California and New Jersey. Railroad shares showed further ease with New York Central, Lackawanna, Alchison, Union Pacific and Chicago and North Western dipping from fractions to nearly a point.

United States Steel was again easy dipping fractionally and generally unsettling the rest of the group including Bethlehem. The motors after opening lower steadied somewhat with Chrysler getting fractionally above its previous low.

Liquor shares were barely steady with National Distillers and Commercial Solvents holding in a narrow range around their previous finals. The commodity markets were slightly easier with cotton down about 50 cents a bale and wheat off fractionally.

Pittsburgh Has Election Troubles

Voting Machine Districts Are Source Of Trouble In Primary Balloting

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Sept. 19.—Scarcely had the polls in Allegheny county been opened today before stories of trouble began filtering into official headquarters from all sides. Demands for paper ballots in 52 districts where the much-betrayed voting machines had been set up for the first time brought charges from Leo A. Riordan, chief of the County Bureau of Investigations that "the delay must have been planned." The voting machines were reported broken down or unworkable in these districts. Riordan countered by explaining that each machine had undergone rigid tests. Unfamiliarity of the voter with the machines only served to redouble the difficulties, both in these districts and in others where the machines were set up. Lack of power, inability of attendants to understand the mechanism, lack of curators—and dozens of similar reasons—were cited to the Election Bureau offices. Approximately 510,000 voters are eligible to go to the polls. Pittsburgh is nominating candidates for mayor and five members of city council. Several judgeships and other county offices are at stake in the county.

STRONGER TODAY(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The stock market continued to be an irregular affair today with the metal shares moving higher, while the rails, utilities and some of the pivotal industrial shares again were easy.

Homestake again was an outstanding feature rising about half a dozen points and generally stimulating Alaska Juneau and Dome mines to renewed activity on the upside. The copper mining shares were strong and fractionally higher on the news that Howe Sound had lifted its dividend rate to $1 from 40 cents.

Oil shares also were strong under the lead of Pure Oil, Standard Oil of California and New Jersey. Railroad shares showed further ease with New York Central, Lackawanna, Atchafalaya, Union Pacific and Chicago and North Western dipping from fractions to nearly a point.

United States Steel was again easy dipping fractionally and generally unsettling the rest of the group including Bethlehem.

The motors after opening lower steadied somewhat with Chrysler getting fractionally above its previous top.

Liquor shares were barely steady with National Distillers and Commercial Solvents holding in a narrow range around their previous finals.

The commodity markets were slightly easier with cotton down about 50 cents a bale and wheat off fractionally.

Firemen Save Township Home

TWO OUTBUILDINGS ARE DESTROYED

Central firemen saved the home of Harry McDaniels, of Union township, near Parkstown corners from destruction early Monday afternoon, after fire had destroyed a small cottage and wash house, closely adjoining the home in the rear with a loss of around $500. The loss is protected by insurance. Firemen received a call for assistance about 1:20 and made a hurried trip to the scene of the blaze in the Pines creek, accompanied by Assistant Chief Thomas, arriving in time to prevent the blaze from the two small structures from communicating to the house.

The origin of the fire is not known. It had gained considerable headway in the small outbuildings when discovered. But for the prompt action of the firemen, the home too would probably have been destroyed.

"It is plain, therefore, that self-medication is a waste of time and frequently fatal because of the delay involved. By the same token, serums, vaccines, colored lights, pastes, salves and diets are valueless.

"After all, the great bulwark against cancer is early diagnosis. Every case is an emergency. And in this connection it is unfortunately true that eighty percent of the patients who seek advice at cancer clinics, to say nothing of those who consult private physicians, are beyond permanent cure.

"It follows that hope should not be placed in false cancer propheta and their treatments. Rather, the annual physical examination and an immediate reporting to a physician of any symptoms which may be beginning of cancer should be relied upon. Those symptoms are: an unusual bleeding from any bodily opening, any lump in the breast, other part of the body, any persistent sore, particularly on the face or mouth, and chronic indigestion.

"While such conditions may not be cancer, on the other hand they sometimes are the forerunners of the more common types of this dread malady and should not be temporized with. Quick action is quite definitely in order.

"Where cancer or a suspicion of cancer, exists, the injunction, Do not put trust in false Gods, most emphatically applies."

"Surgery is relied upon to remove cancerous tumors. This method of treatment is used in nearly two-thirds of all cancers. Irradiation by means of X-ray or radium, is used to advance in fully one-third of the cases. And frequently surgery and irradiation are successfully combined. Incidentally, a cancer operation is considered to be successful if there be no recurrence at the end of a five year period.

Weekly Health Talk

The ever-increasing number of persons in Pennsylvania dying from cancer justifies a warning at this time against cancer quacks and so-called cancer cures. While newspapers do not carry advertisements of this type, there are many other ways by which misinformation emanating from "cancer experts" reaches the public. Undoubtedly there are many persons who, being thus deceived from seeking proper advice, unnecessarily become cancer victims, while others not having cancer in the first instance, are ruined out of much money for a "cure" stated by Theodore E. Appel, State Secretary of Health.

"It should be definitely understood that there are but two possible methods of treating cancer. First, by surgery, and second, by irradiation, that is to say, by the use of radium or X-ray. Moreover, to be effective, assuming that the case has been diagnosed sufficiently early, treatment must be in the hands of highly trained and competent surgeons.

"Surgery is relied upon to remove cancerous tumors. This method of treatment is used in nearly two-thirds of all cancers. Irradiation by means of X-ray or radium, is used to advance in fully one-third of the cases. And frequently surgery and irradiation are successfully combined. Incidentally, a cancer operation is considered to be successful if there be no recurrence at the end of a five year period.

"It is plain, therefore, that self-medication is a waste of time and frequently fatal because of the delay involved. By the same token, serums, vaccines, colored lights, pastes, salves and diets are valueless.

"After all, the great bulwark against cancer is early diagnosis. Every case is an emergency. And in this connection it is unfortunately true that eighty percent of the patients who seek advice at cancer clinics, to say nothing of those who consult private physicians, are beyond permanent cure.

"It follows that hope should not be placed in false cancer propheta and their treatments. Rather, the annual physical examination and an immediate reporting to a physician of any symptoms which may be beginning of cancer should be relied upon. Those symptoms are: an unusual bleeding from any bodily opening, any lump in the breast, other part of the body, any persistent sore, particularly on the face or mouth, and chronic indigestion.

"While such conditions may not be cancer, on the other hand they sometimes are the forerunners of the more common types of this dread malady and should not be temporized with. Quick action is quite definitely in order.

"Where cancer or a suspicion of cancer, exists, the injunction, Do not put trust in false Gods, most emphatically applies."

Firemen Save Township Home

TWO OUTBUILDINGS ARE DESTROYED

Central firemen saved the home of Harry McDaniels, of Union township, near Parkstown corners from destruction early Monday afternoon, after fire had destroyed a small cottage and wash house, closely adjoining the home in the rear with a loss of around $500. The loss is protected by insurance. Firemen received a call for assistance about 1:20 and made a hurried trip to the scene of the blaze in the Pirsch truck, accompanied by Assistant Chief Thomas, arriving in time to prevent the blaze from the two small structures from communicating to the house.

The origin of the fire is not known. It had gained considerable headway in the small outbuildings when discovered. But for the prompt action of the firemen, the home too, would probably have been destroyed.

Weekly Health Talk

"The ever-increasing number of persons in Pennsylvania dying from cancer justifies a warning at this time against cancer quacks and so-called cancer cures. PRITCHARD WINNER

CITY CONTESTS ARE EXCEEDINGLY CLOSE

LAMOREE IS LEADING

ONE MISSING PRECINCT WILL DECIDE WINNERS IN BATTLE FOR COUNCIL

Alexander, Butler, Genkinger And Vaughn Are At Top Of List In Council Race, With One Precinct Count Not Completed Early Today

With the second precinct of the first ward still unreported at five o'clock this morning, the winners for the Republican nomination for City Council could not be determined, although it appeared possible that the winners would be Joseph Alexander and either B. F. Butler, Louis G. Genkinger or Milton A. Vaughn.

The second precinct of the first ward has 480 Republican voters registered, with most of them voting Tuesday. At the halfway mark the returns showed Thomas J. Cunningham and Edward Umbright apparently sweeping the precinct. If the proportion at the half carries through to the finish it appears possible that Alexander will be the high nominee, with Butler second, as neither Cunningham nor Umbright seem to have enough, even though they took 400 each out of the precinct.

The Returns

The returns of the 33 precincts at five o'clock this morning, as shown by the return sheets posted outside the polling precincts, shows the following results:

| | |
|----------------------|------|
| Joseph Alexander | 2252 |
| B. F. Butler | 2186 |
| Milton A. Vaughn | 2021 |
| Louis G. Genkinger | 1951 |
| C. H. Milholland | 1883 |
| Edward Umbright | 1823 |
| W. Stanley Treser | 1684 |
| Thomas J. Cunningham | 1534 |
| Charles E. Patterson | 1037 |
| Arthur Rees | 870 |
| Paul C. Benninghoff | 777 |
| I. J. Miller | 568 |
| Edward Stevenson | 309 |

Not in many years has a council election been as hectic as the one of Tuesday. At no time until nearly all the precincts were in could any winners be hazarded, although Alexander was in front all the way. His margin was so close that it might have been wiped out at any time, but he maintained a steady average over the city.

William R. Hanna Is Nominee Of Democratic Party

Gets Nice Complimentary Vote From The Members Of His Party

William R. Hanna, the only candidate for the Democratic nomination for register and recorder received a fine complimentary vote in the primary Tuesday, receiving a very large percentage of the Democratic vote cast and will be the opponent of the Republican nominee in November.

PLAINGROVE, 2ND PRECINCT
Sheriff—Edward D. Pritchard 16; M. M. Ingham 43; H. Martin Lee 29; Ed. A. Porter 2; John E. Fee 1.

District Attorney—Mont L. Alley 16; Alvah Shumaker 39; J. G. Lamoree 8; Harry H. Frank 35.

Register and Recorder—J. Russell Brodbeck 2; Elmer D. Nesbit 0; Frank S. Brenneman 8; William J. Connery 33; James E. Moorhead 21; Jeannette W. Hutton 7; Walter C. DeArment 0; Alex Black 2; Edwin O. Reed 9; James A. Rugh 0; Harry S. Cunningham 4; H. W. McIlvenny 0.

B. Frank Thorn May Be Nominee

Has Good Lead Over William Newswander, Present Jury Commissioner

B. Frank Thorn of this city will likely be the nominee of the Democratic party for the office of Jury Commissioner, according to the figures obtainable in thirty-three of the districts from all parts of the county early this morning.

In those districts, he has a lead of 97 over his nearest opponent William Newswander, the present Democratic jury commissioner, who was a candidate for re-election.

The vote for the candidates for this nomination was as follows: Thorn 338; Curry 115; Beltz 123 and Newswander 241. With the majority of the districts yet to be heard from being in the country districts, there is a very bare possibility that the result might be changed.

SLEEPY ROCK—NO. 2
Sheriff—Edward D. Pritchard 30; M. M. Ingham 53; H. Martin Lee 9; Ed. A. Porter 6; John E. Fee 18.

District Attorney—Mont L. Alley 44; Alvah Shumaker 61; J. G. Lamoree 28; Harry H. Frank 4.

Three Aldermen Are Re-Nominated

Indications from the returns of the primary this morning, were that Alderman O. H. P. Green, of the Third ward, Alderman Claude Mantz of the Fourth ward, and Alderman James Brice, of the First ward, had all been re-nominated as the Republican standard bearers in their respective wards for the November election.

School Board Vote Is Close

One Precinct Yet To Be Completed May Determine Outcome

DUFF AND THOMAS HAVE SLIGHT LEAD

No winners of the Republican nomination for the three places on the school board can be announced until the returns of the second precinct of the first ward are in, and at five o'clock this morning the board was still counting. With 33 precincts in, the returns are so close that no accurate statement can be made, although Griff Thomas and W. Walter Duff seem to be fairly certain winners.

At five o'clock the returns of the 33 precincts in show the following totals:

|----------------------|------|
| Griff Thomas | 4834 |
| W. Walter Duff | 4731 |
| Roy W. Hazen | 4561 |
| Juanita Brenner | 4492 |
| Ray Bradford Elliott | 4328 |
| A. E. Tullis | 4236 |

The six candidates were divided into two slates of three each, and the returns in the second precinct of the first ward were favoring the Tullis, Brenner, Thomas trio. If this precinct, with some 450 votes in the box, favor this trio by a two to one vote it would not affect the relative standing of Thomas and Duff, but might bring Brenner up beyond Hazen. All of this is problematical and depends entirely upon the second precinct of the first ward.

Wampum Candidates Get Nominations Of Both Parties

Large Vote Is Cast In The Borough As Well As The General Primary

A large vote was cast in the Republican and Democratic primaries for borough offices to be filled at the November election. Those nominated on the Republican ticket were also the nominees of the Democratic party.

The nominees and the vote received in the Republican primary are as follows: borough council—Luigi Ferrante 132; George Herbert 132; E. W. Snare 115 and Robert Grinnin 117; school director—Charles Davis 141; Donald Lee Cameron 145; justice of the peace—James Glover 204 and James Robertson 99; tax collector—E. P. Alliger 136; judge of election—Charles Ferguson 165; inspector of election—C. F. Miles 119.

Democrats Have Three School Board Nominees

In the Democratic primary, Agnes B. Howley, Paris A. Shoaff and William A. Paradise were unopposed for the nomination of school board and received a fine complimentary vote from the members of their party in this city for the three places on the board to be filled at the fall election. They will oppose the Republican nominees at the November election.

Wimer Holds Slight Lead

Unofficial Vote Total Shows Strickler Only Few Votes Behind

CONTROLLER BATTLE CLOSEST OF YEARS

In the closest race for a public office in eight years, Earl R. Wimer seems to have won the Republican nomination for City Controller by 13 votes, if the returns reported to The News are correct. With every precinct of the 34 in the city accounted for, Wimer's total is 2,002, with Robert B. Strickler Jr. breathing on the back of his neck with 1,989.

Should there be an error of but few votes in Wimer's total, Strickler may yet overtake him. The probabilities are that it will take the official count to determine who the winner is. The only possible change in the result will be Strickler's overtaking Wimer. Phil G. Greer, the present controller, is third with 1,392, Wesley Rice fifth with 1,249, Martin Mills sixth with 1,209 and William S. Lewis seventh with 873. So close was the count that took every precinct to decide the count, and even this may not be correct. There is always a possibility that the return sheet posted on the board was made out incorrectly, or that there was an error in the count.

McGrew Nominated For City Controller

Vote In Districts Available Indicates That He Will Be Party Candidate

Don F. McGrew is the indicated nominee of the Democratic party for city controller in the vote cast in twenty-three of the thirty-four districts of the city. In these districts, McGrew had a vote of almost two to one over his only opponent, Frank G. Peebles. The vote in these districts was as follows: Peebles 557 and McGrew 508. The indications are that the missing precincts will not change the result.

John B. Shaw Is Sheriff Nominee On Present Returns

Has Considerable Lead Over His Nearest Opponent For Nomination

John B. Shaw of Washington township, is the nominee of the Democratic party for sheriff, according to the returns from thirty-three of the ninety-one voting districts of Lawrence county available at six o'clock this morning. He had a very comfortable lead of 117 over his nearest opponent, Carl Haufier of this city in these districts and with many country districts to be heard from, which are expected to favor him to a very considerable extent, there is little reason to believe that the result in this contest will be changed.

The vote for the four candidates in this contest in the 33 districts was: Shaw 387; Haufier 250; Herman 169 and Conner 152. The Democrats are planning to stage an active campaign for their nominee.

County commissioners are expecting shortly to make application for federal money with which to build the Croton avenue viaduct. County Solicitor John P. Lockhart is preparing the necessary papers and as soon as they are completed the application will be forwarded to the proper officials.

Lamoreree May Be Nominee For District Attorney

Sizable Lead Is Held, With 62 Precincts Of 91 Tabulated

AILEY IS CLOSELY PURSUING HIM

Missing Precincts May Cut Down Lead Or Change Result

As this edition was going to press, the headquarters of Attorney Mont L. Ailey, candidate for the Republican nomination for district attorney stated that they had returns from 83 precincts of the 91 in the county and that these showed the following: Lamoree 5593, Ailey 5561, Frank 4952 and Shumaker 4558.

With 62 precincts out of 91 reported at six o'clock this morning, John R. Lamoree is leading for the Republican nomination for district attorney with 4,798 votes, as against 4,237 for Mont L. Ailey, his nearest opponent. Harry H. Frank is third with 4,183, and Alvah Shumaker fourth with 3,483.

The race will finish with the winner, whichever he is, with a scant margin over his nearest opponent. The missing districts are all rural and it is in these that Ailey is expected to show strength. In the rural districts reported thus far Ailey has led Lamoree, but to win he must overcome the 561 present lead in the 28 precincts to be reported.

The showing of Lamoree was a surprise. He was conceded to have a good following, but it was not thought that he had sufficient strength to contest for first place. His showing in the rural precincts in this edition goes to press, Lamoree is leading, with Ailey making some progress toward wiping out his lead.

The only possibility for Frank to win is for him to show more strength in the missing rural precincts than he has shown in the ones reported. As the race stands as this edition goes to press, Lamoree is leading, with Ailey making some progress toward wiping out his lead.

Baer Appears To Be Nominee For District Attorney

Has Very Substantial Lead In Vote Of Thirty-Three Districts

Attorney Wilbur J. Baer is to all appearances the nominee of the Democrats for the office of district attorney in the contest with Attorney Clarence Patterson in the districts available at six o'clock today. In the returns from thirty-three of the ninety-one districts of the county available, Baer has a lead of 156 over Patterson.

This contest was heated, both contestants putting forth special efforts to win. The vote in the districts available was as follows: Patterson 329 and Baer 485.

Democratic Council Nominees Indicated

McCormick Appears Assured Of One Of The Nominations Of His Party

Nominees of the Democratic party for city council as far as can be determined by the vote cast in twenty-three of the thirty-four districts of the city are J. F. McCormick and H. Phillips Stone. McCormick on the face of the returns can hardly be headed, while A. R. Turner is running so close to Stone in the returns available, that there is a possibility of Turner being the nominee instead of Stone.

The vote cast for the five councilmanic candidates in the Democratic primary was as follows in the twenty-three districts: McCormick 428; Stone 344; Turner 333; Joseph W. Hahn 193 and Michael Hermann 108.

Miss Hutton Has Narrow Lead

Connery Is Few Votes Behind In Reports From 62 Precincts

BRENNEMAN IS IN THIRD PLACE

At six o'clock this morning Jeannette W. Hutton, present county register and recorder, was leading in the race for the Republican nomination for the office, her total in 62 precincts being 2,725, as compared to 2,646 for William J. Connery, her nearest opponent.

The race for the nomination for register and recorder was bunched, so much so that five or six candidates finished with between 1,300 and 1,500 votes. If Connery can pick up strength in the rural precincts yet to be heard from he may defeat Miss Hutton, but whoever wins, the result will be unusually close.

The returns for register and recorder follow:

|---------------------|------|
| Jeannette W. Hutton | 2725 |
| William J. Connery | 2646 |
| Frank S. Brenneman | 1488 |
| Edwin O. Reed | 1444 |
| James A. Rugh | 1360 |
| Harry S. Cunningham | 1354 |
| Elmer D. Nesbit | 1145 |
| James E. Moorhead | 849 |
| Walter C. DeArment | 805 |
| Harold W. McIlvenny | 736 |

|-------------------|------|
| George J. Forrest | 2074 |

| Howard D. Leslie | 1714 |
| J. C. Blevins | 1409 |
| Captain Moon | 999 |
| Charles W. Haus | 888 |
| W. H. Burnside | 694 |
| J. N. Wagner | 544 |
| Ira Minter | 483 |
| Judson F. Cole | 423 |
| C. M. Shuler | 364 |
| H. W. Douglass | 336 |

Pritchard Has Decisive Lead For Sheriff

Sixty-Two Precincts Indicate He Is Nominated Over Rivals

LEE IS SECOND; INGHAM THIRD

Ellwood City Vote Is Included In Totals Presented Here

Out of all the candidates for the major offices in Lawrence County on Tuesday, only one certain winner can be announced in this edition and that winner is Edward D. Pritchard, winner of the Republican nomination for sheriff. Sweeping through the county in impressive fashion Pritchard piled up a total of 5679 votes in 62 precincts out of 91 in the county. His nearest opponent is H. Martin Lee with 4666, a difference of 1013.

There appears little doubt that Pritchard will maintain or increase this lead in the precincts yet to be heard from. The totals shown above represent all of the Ellwood precincts where Lee went strong. The total vote in the sixty two precincts follows:

|---------------------|------|
| Edward D. Pritchard | 5679 |
| H. Martin Lee | 4666 |
| M. M. Ingham | 2714 |
| John E. Fee | 1929 |
| Edwin A. Porter | 415 |

This was Pritchard's second run for the nomination, he being a candidate in 1929. In that race he finished a close second and apparently his first run stood him in good stead. His strength was not localized in any part of the county but was strong in every section.

Pritchard led easily in the City of New Castle, polling 3792 votes to 2480 for Lee, 1712 for Ingham, 1694 for Fee and 216 for Porter. Swinging out into the county Pritchard continued to increase his lead, and made a splendid showing in Ellwood City, the stronghold of the Lee supporters.

He is one of the youngest sheriffs elected in Lawrence county being under forty. He is a World war veteran and served as a sergeant in the 332nd Infantry overseas. He is married and resides on Garfield avenue.

Is Grand Old Lady

Mme. Ernestine Schumann-Heink, the 72-year-old songstress, is very fond of referring to herself as "just an old peasant mother." In reality she is very much the grande dame—the "grand old lady" of opera and the concert stage. Mme. Schumann-Heink recently sang twice daily in an exposition in Cleveland, and has been asked to go to Washington to help the campaign of the NRA. Her home is in California, and she is motoring across the country with her son, George, to aid President Franklin D. Roosevelt in his war on depression. She declares the president is the "Messiah of the United States," and pleads with everyone to his policies in every way possible.

National Drug Heads Attacks Barroom Plans

Says Drug Stores Will Not Become Barrooms, In Event Of Prohibition Repeal

With this statement, John A. Goode, Asheville, N. C., as president of the National Association of Retail Druggists, today disposed of the liquor situation as it affects the pharmacist.

In his report to the association's annual convention, Goode expounded the popular myth that drug stores handle everything but drugs. As a matter of fact, he said, only six per cent of the total of drug store trade is in sundries, such as sandwiches and rubber balls.

County Directed To Pay The Costs In Case Brought By Clarence Black

After a trial before Judge R. L. Hildebrand at court yesterday afternoon a jury found Edward Hofmeister not guilty on a charge of malicious mischief to cattle and directed that the costs be paid by Lawrence county.

Clarence Black, the prosecutor in the case claimed that he had taken a horse to Hofmeister to be shod at his shop near the Harbor. It was claimed that the horse was unruly and that Hofmeister had struck it. The horse fell down, breaking its neck.

Hofmeister denied that he had struck the horse, claiming that it had thrown itself during the shoeing operation, and that he was in no way to blame for the mishap.

Town Of Moron, In Camaguey Province, Recaptured By Local Troopers

REBEL BAND ON WAY TO HAVANA

(Copyright, 1933, By International News Service) HAVANA, Sept. 19.—Troops loyal to the new government of President Ramon Grau San Martin this morning recaptured the town of Moron, Camaguey Province, which was seized by a small rebel band under Juan Blas Hernandez last night, it was announced today by Rafael Vira, chief of police of Moron.

The loyal troops have arrested the police force of Moron which permitted Blas Hernandez to take the town without firing a shot and are now pursuing the rebels, who number 100 men, and who are headed for Havana, 400 miles distant.

Blas Hernandez, army headquarters announced, offered to surrender and use his band as a special police force to restore order and end strikes in the region of Ciego de Avila, in Camaguey Province. But the rebel leader has many friends near Ciego de Avila and the government, suspecting he planned to raise a larger insurgent force, rejected his proposal and intends to fight.

Attitude Of Frick Coal Co. Vital Problem

(International News Service) UNIONTOWN, Pa., Sept. 19.—Two paramount questions were on the lips of thousands of idle miners today as the Western Pennsylvania bituminous coal workers' "holiday" continued with undiminished force despite the Frick company's signing of the soft coal code.

These questions were:

1. "What is the Frick company going to do?"
2. "What will the president do if the Frick company refuses to sign the code?"

The first query arose as the result of confusion over the status of the H. C. Frick Coal company which took no action in the pre-agreement negotiations at Washington.

Anthony Cavalcante, personal informant of Gov. Gifford Pinchot in the bituminous region, said that definite decision on union recognition stands between the men and the end of the strike. The Frick company has been anti-union for 40 years.

Rural School Directors Meet

FINE MUSICAL PROGRAM GIVEN

Members of the Lawrence County School Directors Association heard the provisions of new legislation, particularly as it applies to the fourth class districts, at a meeting held in the Union Township high school, last evening.

County Superintendent of Schools, John C. Syling, was the principal speaker of the evening.

Meanwhile Sheriff Frank Johnson Is Acting As Special Nurse At Jail

John Cameron, who was serving a term in the workhouse on a larceny charge and for whom an application for parole was recently made on the grounds that he was in need of an operation for gall bladder trouble, is requiring considerable attention at the county jail. He was taken to a hospital shortly after his arrival and x-rays were taken. There is said to have been some difference of opinion among physicians as to his trouble. He wanted his own doctor to operate, but had no money to pay him. The county was willing to engage the regular hospital staff, but refused to pay the doctor Cameron wanted. He was then taken back to the county jail with no definite action in view, unless he consents to the staff operation. Meanwhile, the sheriff is getting up two or three times a night to supply ice and other requisites of his prisoner.

1 "A few years ago," says Miriam Hopkins, of New York, "I was so unhappy. I realized I wasn't very attractive to the boys in our set and naturally that made me miserable."

2 "One night when I was at the movie I noticed how exquisitely lovely Miriam Hopkins' skin looked in the close-up—how its beauty stirred you. What wouldn't I give to have a skin as lovely as that!"

3 "Next night I was thrilled to read in the newspapers how Miriam Hopkins cares for her lovely skin—and some wonderful things scientists say about this beauty care..."

4 "I began at once to use Lux Toilet Soap faithfully. I really expected results—and I really got them! In a very short time my skin grew so much lovelier I was overjoyed."

5 "Nice skin does make a difference! Nowadays I'm far and away the happiest girl in our crowd. My skin is soft, smooth, and clear—really lovely! I don't know what it is to spend a lonely evening—or to go without the compliments that every girl wants to have. I certainly wish I'd realized sooner how very attractive lovely skin is—and what to do to have it!"

Lewis Urges Federal Authorities To Act On State Road Fund

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Sept. 19.—Irked by reports from Washington that insufficient data have been submitted by the state highway department for Pennsylvania to receive $14,000,000 in federal funds now available for highway construction, Samuel S. Lewis, highway secretary, requested federal authorities today to "cut the red tape surrounding approval of projects."

Lewis urged federal authorities to remove requirements that surveys and plans be made of federal roads proposed for construction with federal funds.

"The Pinchot administration has demonstrated that entirely satisfactory results can be obtained and economy achieved in the building of rural roads without surveys and plans," Lewis asserted. "If the federal authorities will lift this one requirement, we can start work on feeder roads in every part of Pennsylvania within 48 hours."

According to reports from the national capital, the $14,000,000 has not been allocated to this state because the highway department has failed to submit complete essential information required in all cases.

So far only six highway projects for this state have been approved. Bids on these will be opened on September 29.

It was feared that reserve tanks of gasoline and oil which are located near the garage would explode, and for a while the whole camp was panicky.

NATIONAL BUYING DRIVE IS PLANNED

Must Help Merchants Meet
Increased Costs in Signing Of NRA Code

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—With codes of fair competition proclaimed for the major basic industries of the nation, the NRA was within sight of its original code goal today.

Approval of the bituminous coal code by President Roosevelt, with conditions, brought to seven the list of basic industries now in the blue ink fold, and enabled Hugh S. Johnson, NRA administrator, to turn to trade lesser industries.

Officials' Confident
Beginning with the cotton textile code, which has absorbed many branches of the textile industry, the key industries under codes include wool textiles, lumber, steel, oil, automobile and coal.

Officials of the NRA, confident that the road to complete coding of industry is now down hill, pointed out that at the beginning of the campaign three months ago Johnson declared the biggest task was to bring the key industries into the movement.

The master retail code assumed the spotlight, with Johnson announcing he will now make an intensive effort to bring this problem to a head within a week.

Despite the battle over price-fixing among retailers and between NRA officials, Johnson hoped to avoid long delay, with most retail stores working under the temporary presidential agreement, the NRA administrator holds that all must be brought under a code to avoid hardship.

Will Meet Situation
Not only did Johnson confront the question of price-fixing, but the ability of small retail establishments to bear the increased cost of the code appeared. Officials hold the new loan policy of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation together with exceptions planned in the code, will meet the situation.

Other important codes either in the NRA mill or expected soon include: Motion picture industry, boot and shoe manufacturing, rubber manufacturing, silk industries, motion bus and city transit industries, and anthracite coal.

Street car, subway and local bus lines are included in a code approved by Johnson. Action by President Roosevelt is expected soon.

Big Buying Drive
A hearing is in progress on the automobile retail code, hearing is set for Sept. 28 on an aluminum code, and the rubber and anthracite codes will be brought to a hearing soon. Anthracite operators were expected here this week for a conference.

More than 3,500,000 employees now are under permanent codes, it was estimated.

The NRA administrator also was laying plans for a sustained, national buying drive to start business on a new upward spiral.

In the meantime, he was planning to transform the NRA from a code writing organization to a body to administer the permanent codes. Despite the setback occasioned by the fight over soft coal, NRA officials believe virtually all codes will be completed by November 1.

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 18.—The NRA has brought a lot of "new business" to New Jersey seashore resorts, according to a survey made here among working girls to discover what they do with the extra day off under the 40-hour week.

A large majority said they made a week-end of it at seashore points such as Atlantic City, Ocean City, Wildwood and Cape May.

Others said they do shopping on the extra day off, some reported putting in the time golfing, fishing and gardening while another group said they caught up on their sleep.

The right amount of inflation, of course, is just enough to bring your stock back to the price you paid.

ARGENTINE'S EXPORT TRADE DECLINES

(International News Service)
BUENOS AIRES—A substantial decline in Argentina's export trade for the first seven months of the current year as compared with the corresponding period of 1932 is revealed in a report by the Amer-

The astonishing thing about the processing tax is that any process can make a thing swell like that.

Fire Damages Baron Building

Loss Of $500 Is Sustained In Blaze Monday Afternoon
On Moravia Street

FIRE BREAKS OUT TWICE IN BUILDING

Central and No. 3 firemen were called out twice Monday afternoon to extinguish a blaze in the building owned by Louis Baron of 1221 Moravia street. The loss was around $500, covered by insurance.

At 1:35 an alarm was sounded from box 55, and the two departments answered. Assistant Fire Chief Thomas and the B truck crew were fighting a fire in Union township at the time.

The fire was first discovered in the rooms occupied by Louis Landis on the second floor, and is believed to have started from a gasoline stove. It was blazing briskly when firemen arrived, the gasoline in the stove and a can nearby having exploded, hurling the fire through several rooms.

Firemen thought they had the blaze extinguished, but at 2:40 it broke out anew from a spark underneath the roof, and a second call was sent in. The second blaze was quickly extinguished.

Jewish Holidays To Be Observed

Observance Of Rosh Hashanah
In Temple

Temple Israel, Highland and Moody avenues, will conduct its special services for Rosh Hashanah (the Jewish "New Year") on Wednesday evening, Sept. 20, at 8 o'clock and Thursday morning, Sept. 21, at 10 o'clock. Rabbi Avery Jones Grossfield officiating. The topic of the sermon for Wednesday evening will be "Hercules Today," and the topic of the sermon for Thursday morning will be "Understanding."

The prayers in the ritual for both services will be rendered with the inspiring traditional High Holiday melodies, and the Shofar (ram's horn) will be blown during the Thursday morning service.

The flowers that will adorn the pulpit during the Rosh Hashanah services have been offered in loving memory of Abe Marlin, by his children.

Rosh Hashanah—The New Year. With sunset on Wednesday, September 20, the Jewish people will begin its celebration of the festival of New Year, known in Hebrew as Rosh Hashanah. On this solemn day, Jewry the world over will usher in the year 5694 with prayers and meditation. Orthodox Jews designate two days for the observance of this holiday. The Jewish New Year bears a special appeal to every generation of Jews, and especially to Jewry today.

Originally, the Hebrew New Year marked the opening of the agricultural and economic year in Palestine. It began in autumn, because with fall there followed in regular succession the seasons of the sowing of seeds, of the ripening of the corn, of the harvest and gathering of the fruits. As a matter of fact, this day was not expressly called New Year's day, but it was undoubtedly thus regarded by the Jews at a very early period. It was celebrated by resting from all labor, as it still is today, and offering special sacrifices at the Temple of Jerusalem. But it was distinguished from the observance of the other holidays by the blowing of the shofar, the ram's horn—a custom still prevailing in the synagogue.

However, as the agricultural background faded away from Jewish life, the rabbinic authorities shifted the New Year's day to memorialize the beginning of creation, and endowed this holiday with a most solemn meaning. Based upon scriptural passages, it became the judgment day of the Jewish calendar—the day upon which God judges all the inhabitants of the earth.

For this reason another designation of the day is yom haddin, "The Day of Atonement." The days intervening between New Year's day and the Day of Atonement are called "The Ten Days of Penitence," during which the opportunity is afforded to reflect finally on and repent the wrongs done during the year; if the repentance is sincere forgiveness is gained on the culminating day of the holy season, "The Day of Atonement."

The injunction to blow the trumpet on this day was to call the people to remembrance before the Lord. In the course of time, this ceremony of blowing the shofar became the central feature of the elaborate religious service conducted on the day. Just as the shofar called the people to remembrance before the Lord, so also were its sounds to arouse the people to their shortcomings and to their duties in which they may have failed. The day is called on this account yom hazikaron, "The Day of Memorial."

The New Year's day in the passing of the centuries has thus come to embody the great religious ideas of divine justice and human responsibility. As the beginning of the Jewish religious year it emphasizes the religious uniqueness of the Jewish people, the servant of the one God, the priest people of humanity.

Not like any other cigarette

The United States Government granted Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company the right to use "Chesterfield" for cigarettes

THIS means that the Chesterfield formula—that is, the leaf and the manufacturing formula—is different from that of other cigarettes.

For a cigarette to be milder and to taste better, it has to have in it ripe, mild, mellow tobacco, and the right quantity of the right kinds of Turkish tobacco. Then the cigarette has to be made right.

You can prove for yourself that Chesterfields are not like other cigarettes. They're milder . . . they taste better.

Pitts Announces Rules To Govern License Holders

Apply To Both Wholesalers And Retailers Who Are Holding Licenses

No Person Can Be Prevented From Buying On Account Of Race Or Color

Ever since the new beverage licensing act went into effect, holders of licenses have been perplexed as to just what was required of them. They knew in a general way that they were not supposed to sell to minors, over the bar or sell orders for beer, but there was no authoritative set of rules and regulations to guide their conduct.

County Treasurer William O. Pitts has been compelled to answer so many inquiries that he has thought it best to formulate a set of rules and regulations to govern all holders of licenses, whether wholesale or retail. After a careful study of the law he has devised a set of rules which it is believed will give a thorough understanding of the matter.

These rules and regulations are announced by Treasurer Pitts today and are as follows:

All beverages manufactured outside of the state of Pennsylvania must be affixed by a beverage tax stamp or a Pennsylvania crown to the original container in which all beverages are placed, received, stored, shipped or handled. Such stamps or crowns shall be affixed to each individual container or beverage by the distributor within 48 hours after such beverages are placed therein or received by them.

It shall be unlawful to fortify, adulterate, contaminate or in any way to change the character or purity of the beverages from that as originally marketed by the manufacturer.

It shall be unlawful to transport

any beverages except in the original containers.

All beverage delivery vehicles shall bear the name and address of the distributor in letter no smaller than four inches in height.

Sales By Distributors.

No distributor shall purchase, receive or retail any beverages except in the original containers. Provided, that no such beverage sold or delivered shall be consumed upon the premises of the distributor or in any place provided for such purpose by such distributor.

Sales By Retailers.

No retailer shall purchase or receive any beverages except in original containers, and, thereafter, may break the bulk upon the licensed premises and sell or dispense the same for the use and consumption only, however, in and upon the premises so licensed. Provided, however, that such retailer may sell such beverages in the original containers to be carried from the premises by the purchaser thereof.

No retailer shall maintain any bar at which beverages are served to customers, or sell any beverages for consumption on the licensed premises except in a room or rooms or place on the licensed premises at all times visible and accessible to the use and accommodation of the general public; but this section shall not be interpreted to prohibit the sale of beverages at a lunch counter with seats and chairs permanently fastened thereto. If such counter is in an eating place as herein defined, a retailer licensed to sell beverages in a hotel or clubhouse may, however, sell and deliver such beverages in any room of such hotel or clubhouse occupied by a bona fide, registered guest or member entitled to purchase the same.

Must Frame Licenses.

All licensees shall frame his or its license under a transparent substance and display same in a conspicuous space so that it may easily be read in his or its place of business and no license shall authorize such sale until this section has been complied with.

All licensed places must contain

Healthy Hair will grow only on a Healthy Scalp

Soap 25c. Ointment 25c and 50c. Proprietors: Potter Drug & Chemical Corporation, Malden, Mass.

In the room that beverages are dispensed 40 chairs not including seats at a lunch counter.

It is unlawful to sell, trade or barter in beverages between the hours of 12 o'clock midnight of any Saturday and 6 o'clock in the forenoon of the following Monday, eastern standard time.

Things of Value Not to Be Offered for the Return of Certain Articles: It shall be unlawful for any person to sell beverages, to offer or give anything of value, as a premium, for the return of caps, stoppers, corks, stamps or labels taken from any bottle, case, barrel or package containing such beverages, or to offer or give anything of value, as a premium or present, to induce the purchase of such beverages, or for any other purpose whatsoever in connection with the sale of such beverages. Provided, however, that this section shall not apply to the return of any moneys specifically deposited for the return of the original containers to the owners thereof.

No Race Distinctions.

No person can be prohibited from buying beverages at your place of business regardless of race or color. The room or place of business where beverages are for consumption are to be served must at all times be visible and accessible to the general public. This section does not effect incorporated clubs and secret organizations.

Unlawful Sales.

It shall be unlawful for any licensee, or his or its servants, agents or employees:— To sell, furnish or give any beverages to any person visibly intoxicated, or to any insane person, or to any minor (under 21 years of age).

To sell, furnish or give any beverages to any person on any day on which a general, municipal, special or primary election is being held.

In the case of retailers, to sell or offer to sell any beverages for consumption on the premises where sold to any person on credit, except on credit extended by a hotel or club to a bona fide, registered guest or member. No right of action shall exist to collect any claim for credit extended contrary to the provisions of this clause.

To sell, offer to sell or furnish any beverages to any person on a pass-book or store order, or to receive from any person any goods, wares, merchandise or other articles in exchange for beverages.

To hawk or peddle any beverages in this commonwealth.

Seaman Finds This Delicious Cereal Relieves Constipation

Here is an unsolicited letter from Mr. Darragh:

"I have been going to sea for the past fourteen years. Every trip, I undergo severe headaches, nervousness, and sleeplessness. Tried all sorts of remedies, and received only temporary relief.

"So hearing about Kellogg's ALL-BRAN thought I would get a box, which I did. That was six months ago, haven't been without it at home, and when I go to sea a box of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is always with me."—George D. Darragh, 1914 32nd Avenue, Oakland, California.

Tests show ALL-BRAN contains two things for common constipation: "Bulk" to exercise the intestines; vitamin B to help tone the intestinal tract. ALL-BRAN also supplies iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of lettuce. Inside the body, it forms a soft mass, which gently clears the intestines of wastes.

How much pleasanter this is than taking pills and drugs—so often harmful. Two table-spoonfuls of ALL-BRAN daily will correct most types of constipation. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Serve as a cereal or use in cooking. Get the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Speaking Of Codes Library Believes It Deserves One!

Sees Control Measure For Book Defacing Needed—Sample Offered

Evidently other libraries than the New Castle library are finding borrowers' comments and illustrations in library books. In a book-binder's periodical received yesterday at the library was found the following paragraph:

"Speaking of codes—how about one for the people who write in the margins of library books? Margin markers should agree as to how much space any one reader must consume with his notations. Should the notations be legible or just marked to pique the curiosity? Perhaps drawings of the family cat, mansion or motor car should be embellished in colors instead of plain lead pencil. This might be a complicated code but it would simplify a nation's reading."

A state law imposes a heavy fine for defacing library books.

Open Bessemer Schools Monday

Danger Of Epidemic Of Infantile Paralysis Is Believed Past

With no new cases of infantile paralysis reported during the past week, the Bessemer schools started their term Monday morning with a large attendance. Supervising Principal Gerald Nord stated today. Neither case reported to the health authorities proved to be of a serious nature. The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kanengiser, who was the first stricken, is recovering nicely and no ill effects are expected to result from the attack. The second case proved to be of a very mild character.

With the incubation period past and no new cases developing, it was deemed safe to open the schools by the health authorities of the borough.

McKays Return To Florida Safely

Find No Serious Damage Done By Recent Storm Which Struck State

In a letter from A. S. McKay, friends here are informed that they arrived safely back in Florida on September 7, after an enjoyable trip by bus.

They had spent the past summer in New Castle and vicinity during which they attended many reunions and parties, meeting many friends whom they had not seen for 33 years.

Mr. McKay stated that they were anxious to get home because of the recent storm in Florida and were relieved to find that little damage had been done to their property. The most serious damage was done to the fruit crop, much of the fruit having been blown from the trees by the high wind. Considerable damage was done to many properties by water, the wind having torn off the composition roofing with which the buildings were roofed, and allowed the water to get in. The rainfall ranged between 14 and 20 inches in 36 hours.

Owing to the heavy rainfall and high water, the fishing has been excellent. Mr. McKay relates that he was out with a fishing party soon after returning home, catching a seven-pound bass.

Oklahoma Court Thrown Open To Public For First Time As Jury Is Selected

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN, International News Service Staff Correspondent

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Sept. 19.—United States Attorney Herbert K. Hyde today unrolled the federal government's opening blast against the twelve defendants on trial for the $200,000 kidnaping of Charles F. Urschel, multi-millionaire Oklahoma City oil man.

Hyde began his opening statement to the jury by reading the federal indictment charging Harvey J. Bailey and Albert L. Bates, notorious desperados, and ten others, one of them a woman, with the kidnaping of Urschel.

Public Admitted
The machine gun guarded courtroom was thronged as Hyde, a stocky, swarthy-complexioned man, launched into an explanation of the government's purpose at this trial which is the first under the "Lindbergh" abduction law.

The jury having been selected yesterday, the public was admitted this morning for the first time. Fully half of the spectators were women. They were surprised upon reaching the upper floors of the federal building to find deputy marshals armed with sawed-off shotguns and rifles. Every person was challenged and forced to show a pass before being admitted. Nearly everybody was searched.

Hope To Awaken Chicago Girl Out Of Her Long Sleep

Patricia McGuire, 29, Has Been In Coma Since February 15, 1932

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Defeated at every turn thus far in its exhaustive effort to revive 29-year-old Patricia McGuire from a coma that has lasted since February 15, 1932, medical science today adopted a new procedure—the artificial fever treatment.

Through use of fever temperatures induced by a hyperpyrexia machine, Dr. Eugene F. Traut, in charge of this strangest of all "sleeping sickness" cases, hopes to at least awaken Patricia.

Her residence in suburban Oak Park has been especially wired with power facilities to make possible the latest experiment. To her wrists will be fastened electrodes and when the current is applied her temperature will rise to fever level.

The "fever" will be brought on gradually, it was explained, and when the proper temperature is reached they will be maintained for prescribed periods in the hope of stimulating an awakening.

Lindberghs Plans For Soviet Flight Being Kept Secret

Soviet Officials Will Give Lindberghs Warm Welcome If They Go To Leningrad

(International News Service)
STOCKHOLM, Sept. 19.—Col. and Mrs. Charles E. Lindbergh visited a Swedish warship in the harbor of Karlskrona today and then spent some time inspecting their own seaplane.

The Lindberghs are at Karlskrona as guests of Admiral Lindstrom.

The Soviet legation here said it had no knowledge of Col. Lindbergh's reported plans to fly to Moscow.

Warm Welcome
MOSCOW, Sept. 19.—Despite contrary information from Stockholm today Russian aviation officials understood that Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh will fly to Leningrad in a few days from southern Sweden.

They are expected to exchange views with Soviet commissioners regarding possible establishment of a northern air route.

The duration of Col. Lindbergh's visit is unknown but is said he will visit no other city in the Soviet Republic. Arrangements are being made to give him a warm welcome at Leningrad though government officials will not participate in view of the fact that the United States has not recognized the Soviet.

Featuring the outing was a brief entertainment period which followed the dinner, arranged under the direction of Chairman Albert Street, Francis E. Sowersby and William McLaughlin of Rotary's entertainment committee.

A comical skit was presented by a group of members after which a drawing contest for a floor lamp was held. Mrs. Albert Street won it. Several of the members enjoyed horseshoe contests.

Before leaving the grounds, Mr. Round spoke briefly on the future possibilities of Cascade, now city-operated.

As Uncle Sam Goes After Urschel Kidnapers

Here are the principals in the federal courtroom drama at Oklahoma City as justice is arrayed against the alleged kidnapers of Charles F. Urschel, Oklahoma oil magnate, who was released only after the payment of $190,000, the largest ransom in history.

Harvey Bailey, notorious desperado, is accused as the ringleader in the kidnap plot. Others implicated are Albert Bates, alleged accomplice of Bailey; R. C. Shannon, his son, Armon, and their wives, at whose Texas farm home Urschel assertedly was held captive.

Witnesses at the trial include Walter Jarrett, close friend of Urschel, who was kidnaped with him and later released by the abductors, and their wives, with whom they were playing bridge at Urschel's palatial home when the crime was staged.

Still broader are the shoulders of the velvet gown, below, the dropped sleeves stiffened with taffeta and topped by a toque of velvet in bandanna effect.

Although it is a plain case of gilding the lily, Miss Marion Bergeron apparently could not resist the temptation to add just a little touch of makeup to her flawless features after she had been declared "Miss America" at the Atlantic City, N. J., beauty pageant. At right she is shown with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bergeron, of West Haven, Conn., where her father is a policeman. In center, the measurements of the national beauty queen are shown. She is sweet 16, platinum blonde, does not drink or smoke and is pleased no end to get away from stenography and into a stage or screen career.

Colonial Beats Elder A. C., 1-0

"WHITEY" NICKUM BACK ON SQUAD

Colonial One Up On Elder; Teams Clash Again Today

New Castle high school football team is not going to be idle very much this week. With Coach Garry Benedict and his Ellwood City high football team due to make their appearance at Taggart field Friday night there is cause for action in the New Castle camp. Ellwood served warning by trouncing Union high's scrappy eleven Saturday 19 to 0.

Charles "Whitey" Nickum reported for football yesterday afternoon and will likely be used at an alternating halfback job. Coach Bridenbaugh was well pleased with the way Charles James and Lane performed in the Bradnock game, and does not want to break up his combination, but Nickum is a valuable man to have around, especially in the matter of throwing forward passes. Riddle will again call signals, and can be relied upon to come through in fine shape. Captain Walter Komine, the old pile driving fullback, is in fine shape and rating to go again.

The drill Monday afternoon was comparatively light for the regulars, but the reserves got a real workout. Quite a lot of time this week will be devoted to breaking up forward passes. Benedict using the Notre Dame system will throw a number of passes. Bridenbaugh believes that he has a system that will stop the aerial attack.

King Levinsky Beats Sharkey

Ex-Champion Unable To Cope With Blows Swung By Chicago Kingfish

By JOHN C. HOFFMAN
International News Service Sports Writer

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—Only yesterday he was an incredible young man who sold fish on Maxwell St. and they were laughing because he would be in the same ring with Jack Sharkey, the ex-champion, but today they're telling about King Levinsky, the conqueror and master of this same Sharkey.

They're not laughing—now. Instead some 25,000 customers who paid $53,000 to see the Kingfish do what he was not expected to do, are recounting the seven rounds that saw the Sharkey man, a little older, a little less resilient, pounded until it seemed he would collapse. There was no doubt of the decision that moved the buffalo of the ghetto a little closer to wherever it is that he is headed for in the heavyweight prize fight business. There were no tears in the Sharkey man's eyes when it was over. Instead, he stood, with an understanding grin. His eyes focused on the spectate before him. It was not his night.

No man is really as brave and self-satisfied as he looks after finally having a tooth pulled.

GOLF FACTS NOT THEORIES

By ALEX. J. MORRISON
Central Press Association

Number 99

ALEX. MORRISON says: Watching a good player make a successful shot gives one the impression that the swing is mainly a matter of moving the arms and hands back and forth. And this impression holds with the average player when he goes to make his own swing.

The part played by the feet, legs and hips in enabling the arms and hands to move as they do is completely overlooked.

By failing to perform the necessary body movements the player's swing is without power or accuracy.

Lack of the proper hip action is the reason for poor distance and direction with the long shots.

That extra distance you want can't be had without the proper body action.

Giants After One More Game To Cinch Flag

If Giants Win And Pirates Lose, National League Race Is Over

DECIDING GAMES PLAYED TODAY

By COPELAND C. BURG
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Baseball's merry whirligig today reached the stage where the sublime becomes the ridiculous, like a one armed tailor fashioning a pair of pants out of a vest pocket.

It seems the New York Giants haven't enough punch to win the national league pennant by taking another ball game, so they are just going to stand still and capture the flag by the simple progress of having the Pittsburgh Pirates lose one. Thus, if you happen to be one of the Giant's pals, don't pay any attention to the New York-St. Louis game today and concentrate on the battle between Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, so in the event the Phillies happen to stumble on to victory you can throw your hat in the air and make the rafters ring with cheers from the great New Yorkers.

It's all rather complicated, but it was carefully explained to us that the second place Pirates are in the embarrassing position of having to win all their remaining games and the minute they drop a contest they hand the 1933 title to the Giants, like an English butler serving a cocktail.

Giants Stopped
The Giants were all set to officially take over the pennant yesterday when this person Bob O'Farrell bobbed up again. He is the castoff Giant now with the St. Louis Cardinals, who is always bothering.

He smacked a ball right at Fred Fitzsimmons' neck and that was the end of the New York pitcher for the day and Carl Hubbell, Giant ace, who followed, did not do so well. Anyway, Tex Carleton, the Cardinal hurler, limited the league leaders to seven hits and finally poked a single in the eighth scoring Leo Durander, who had tripled. All this counted up to St. Louis 4, New York 3, and put the Giant's ultimate success over for at least another 24 hours.

Pirates Split
Pittsburgh split two games with Philadelphia. Paul Waner won for the Bucs 2 to 1 with a triple in the eighth, but Ed Holley gave the Pirates only four hits in the finale, the Phillies taking it, 6 to 0.

Van Lingle Mungo, Brooklyn pitcher, was aided in his victory over the Chicago Cubs 6 to 4 when Johnny Frederick homered with two on. Pitcher Fred Frankhouse proved better than St. Johnson and Boston's Braves downed Cincinnati, 8 to 2.

Sam Gray, St. Louis' Browns hurler, supposed to have a sore arm and not good enough for Washington defeated the Senators 4 to 2, spacing the Nats' blows nicely.

Chicago's White Sox could only get two hits off Johnny Allen as the New York Yankees triumphed 6 to 1. But they collected nine blows off Charlie Ruffing in the night cap and downed the Yanks 4 to 3. Leslie Tietje, Chicago rookie, making his debut, was Ruffing's master. Lou Gehrig homered for New York in both contests.

Hilly in Shape
Two scratch-hits that might have been avoided had Gardener Wes Furrell moved faster robbed Oral Hildebrand of a no-hit success as Cleveland let down Boston's Sox, 6 to 0.

Cramer, Johnson and Higgins whacked home-run blows enabling the Athletics to snatch one from Detroit, 9 to 8.

Union Lineup To Be Shifted

Coach "Pop" Boyd Will Send Captain Georgacs To Fullback Position

EVANS CITY IS NEXT GAME

Union high school football team will go to Evans City Friday afternoon for its second game of the season, according to an announcement from Coach David M. Boyd today. Union hopes to take the measure of Evans City and thus even up for the defeat suffered at the hands of Ellwood City.

Coach Boyd plans some shifting of his players this week in an effort to add to the offense of the team. Captain Georgacs will be shifted from the line to fullback. He is a big powerful chap and is fast for his weight. He will no doubt make a very valuable fullback.

Todd Looks Good.
The halfback jobs will be taken care of by Monico and Morrison, with Todd at quarterback. Todd looked very good in the Ellwood City game. He handled the team like a veteran. He is due to be one of the Union stars before the season is over.

It is likely that Gierlach will be shifted to tackle on the first team to replace Georgacs. No other replacements will be made, according to Boyd.

The regulars were given a rest Monday afternoon, but the remainder of the squad was put through a tough scrimmage session. Union does not want to be on the losing end again this season.

Coach Emmett Gillaspie has a fine looking squad working out each afternoon at Taggart field and it would not be surprising to see the Franklin team with the championship again when the season is all over. The Franklin team this year is big and fast. The addition of Domenico DeCaprio will add strength to Franklin in the backfield.

The temporary variety lineup Monday afternoon looked like this: ends, Vargo and Small; tackles, Calazza and Rizzo; guards, Jokinen and Gentry; center, DePorzio; quarterback, Mumford; halfbacks, Paluso and DeCaprio; fullback, Freed.

The student managers are busy these afternoons looking after the many wants of the gridlers. The student helpers for Coach Gillaspie are Louis Mahoning and Alex Dudkin, and they are real workers. Bill Wallace is the assistant coach and a real addition to the coaching staff.

The Ben Franklin high schedule for 1933:

Sept. 25—Union Reserves at Union.

Sept. 28—Ellwood Junior high here.

Oct. 5—Bessemer at Bessemer.

Oct. 12—Ellwood at Ellwood.

Oct. 16—Union Reserves here.

Oct. 26—George Washington at Taggart field.

No date has been selected for the Bessemer game at Taggart field, or for the sophomore game.

Mahoning One Up In Five-Game Series For League Title

SNYDER MAY OPPOSE HUTNIC

Having dropped the first of the series with Mahoning A. A. Bessemer hopes to stage a comeback Wednesday when the second game of the series is played at Centennial field.

The winner of the series will "cop" the championship of the Lawrence county league. Mahoning won the first half and Bessemer the last.

Before the game started Saturday there was a feeling that having played more consistently during the second half, Bessemer would win but they simply couldn't fathom the offerings of Paul McCullough when his meat runs.

On the other hand four errors did not do Bessemer much good. He allowed nine hits and forced six to hit the air but the breaks were with Mahoning and the Cangienmen romped off the field winners of the first game.

Taking the game from start to finish it was one of those kind that had the fans speculating as to what might happen any minute. Nord and McCullough, with a lot of smoke and a bundle of curves, took no chances on putting 'em down the groove.

W. Puromaki, left fielder; Valentin, right fielder; and T. Puromaki, third baseman for Bessemer, each bugged two hits off McCullough. J. Picarro, third baseman; Calipetri, catcher; Huff, second baseman; and Perretta, first baseman, got two hits each for Mahoning.

Snyder Vs Hutnic? There were several spectacular hits, for instance, triples by Mack and Valentin and doubles by G. G. Stanley and T. Puromaki and with both teams owning a lot of heavy sluggers their bats may get to working when the next game occurs Wednesday.

Some of the boys out Bessemer way are inclined to believe that Manager Sankey will send Snyder to the hill. He has hurried consistently during the second half and if Steve Hutnic is available Nick Cangle will send him to the mound.

Hutnic, a seasoned veteran, hurled splendid baseball in the Tigers-Mahoning clash and peculiar as it may seem Paul McCullough, now an ace for Mahoning, was a member of the Tigers staff but played first base.

One thousand people witnessed the first of the series and it is expected that twice that many will see the game starts at 5:15 p. m., D. S. T. tomorrow. Umpires Price, Ross, McHale and Bishop have been assigned by "Pick" Glitch to rule the game.

Yarocz Again Beats Dundee

By HYPE IGOE
International News Service Sports Writer

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 19.—Lou Brouillard, the new middleweight champion of the world, has a new "customer" and a fighting son-of-a-sea-cook he is.

Teddy Yarocz is his name and can he fight! He gave Vince Dundee, best of the middle weight contenders, a real drumming last night.

Yarocz earned a decision over Vince in Pittsburgh three weeks ago and they brought Yarocz into Dundee's back yard last night on a dare that he couldn't do it again.

Teddy did it with deadly jestures, some of them all but spilling Vince. Dundee made a superb rally in the three or four rounds but Yarocz had such a commanding lead in the first six rounds that only a knockout could possibly bring victory to the brother of the former middleweight champion.

Few men have taken a smacking with fistic courage than did Dundee. He was so spent when he put on his final charge his blows had little or no effect on the young lad from Pittsburgh.

Mickey Walker declared Brouillard is in for a fine night of torment when he meets his new fighter combat which is soaring above the skies.

Summer Tournament Finals In Progress

This afternoon at 2 o'clock Charles Morrow and George Trainor engaged in the first 18 holes of the 36-hole finals of the annual summer tournament of the New Castle Field club.

The final 18 holes of the tournament finals will be played Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The finalists are playing under seven-eighths handicaps.

Heroes-Goats In Big League
(International News Service)

The hero—Tex Carleton, Cardinals. Held the New York Giants to seven safeties and cracked a single to score the run that beat New York, 4 to 3. St. Louis victory kept the Cardinals from officially annexing the National League pennant.

The goat—Ora! Hildebrand, Cleveland. Robbed of a no-hit game when Wes Ferrell failed to run fast enough after two flies, which went for scratch hits as the Indians won from Boston's Red Sox, 9 to 0.

Sixteen Battlers At Fair Ground

Field Club Course Busy This Week

HUSKY PUGILISTS READY FOR ACTION

There'll be a lot of boxing gloves awhirl Wednesday and Thursday night at the Grandstand, Fair Ground, according to the pugilistic docket to satisfy the punch appetites of fans and fanettes. The first bout will start at 8:30 p. m. D. S. T. each night.

The docket calls for eight bouts each night and as it takes two to make a fight, the fans who like to see the gladiators hit, miss, duck and stop will see 16 battles each night or 32 in all. They all belong to the A. A. U.

The card has been balanced evenly. There are spectacular A. A. U. fighters scheduled for action each night. For instance, George Rocco of Ellwood City will tackle Jack Smith of Ohio in a 160 pound bout the first night.

On the second night Custy Morini of Ellwood City will take on Sam Givels and Tony Adamo, a New Castle boy will try to reverse a decision that Mike Olercheck won over him at Farrell a few weeks back.

Another classy scrap arranged for the first night will find Johnny Visack battling Mickey Cutie, a 112 pound champion. Yankee Pagley will tackle Johnny Tonofini who succumbed to the champ, Cutie, in their last appearance here.

Joe Evans of Ellwood City goes against Johnny Swanton of Youngstown, Thursday night and fans will see a hurricane of action when Tony Teleco meets Mickey Devlin. According to reports they are as classy as a pair of 122 pounders as can be found around here.

All the boys who are docketed for action are reported to be in splendid physical condition. On each "fight night" they will be examined and weighed in at 6:30 p. m. and will rest until they're summoned to answer the first bell.

It is the first time in the history of the Fair here that boxing has been featured. According to the officials of the fair the other associations have found that the people want sports and boxing at night and this year they'll get plenty of it.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Teddy Yarocz is richer in pocket and fame today as the result of his second meeting with Vince Dundee last night at Newark, N. J. After 10 rounds of glove hurling Teddy won the decision and pocketed $8,000. The scrap was one-sided from the first until the eighth round. Dundee could not solve the Monaco lass style. It was the second time Vince lost to Teddy.

Jack Sharkey, the loquacious Bostonian is two runs down the pugilistic ladder this afternoon. Primo Carrera sent him down one step when he won the heavyweight crown and last night at Chicago King Levinsky won from the former Gob in 10 rounds at Chicago.

James Brown of Detroit, retiring president of the National Boxing Association has asked the association to refuse recognition of national championship fights of less than 15 rounds duration. He suggested that need for keener attention to amateur boxers. "There fellows" he said "are taking the boxing game alive in many cities which is no fallacy."

When Bessemer and Mahoning clash Wednesday instead of hurling against each other, Paul McCullough and Steve Hutnic will be mates on the Mahoning outfit. If Hutnic doesn't go to the hill Paul will and Manager Martin of Bessemer may send Snyder to the mound. The game will probably draw several thousand fans.

Members of the service division were guests of the Legion of Honor at last evening's match and a good crowd was present for the play.

Last evening's match on the Municipal Links ended a pleasant season of golfing for the members of the Legion of Honor, their evening matches being concluded with the event.

However, plans have been made to play a series of matches on Saturday afternoons during the next month or so, and the first event on this schedule will be played next Saturday.

All those able to do so are asked by the committee to be on hand for play at 1:30.

Ellwood Priming For New Castle

Local Grid Squad Begins Hard Training For Clash With Old Rival

STECKMAN IS LOST FOR GAME; BETTONI SUFFERS FROM KNEE INJURY

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 19.—Coach "Gandy" Benedict's Ellwood City high grid squad began serious training Monday afternoon for what local people consider the most important game of the season.

Second clash, following the resumption of relations with another "Red Hurricane" team" of New Castle high, coached by Phil H. Bridenbaugh.

Both teams won their season opener last week. The Bridenbaugh coached combination trimmed the strong Braddock squad team 26-0 in a night game and Ellwood high shut out a plucky Union Township team 19-0. To date there is no basis of comparison of the two elevens, except what is apparent in their games.

New Castle high has the makings of another great team and should hit their full stride in about mid-season. It is the opinion of fans that it still lacks the smoothness and polish of last year's championship "Red Hurricane". Defensively the line is rated as better. It will develop in all ways as the season goes. It is known that the backfield in not clicking entirely satisfactorily as yet. This may be remedied with the return of "Whitey" Nickum to the squad yesterday.

On the other hand Ellwood City is considered as an improved eleven over last year. There is a better degree of cooperation, spirit, and resolve to win. There is a good trio of ball carriers in the persons of "Wishy" Frannus, the colored giant Al Beane, and Milton Lunsford.

The team's excellent punting and passers have and succeeded in keeping the opposition guessing. Coach Benedict has three splendid pass receivers in Beane, Jeannette, and Bettioni, who will be used to advantage.

Coach Benedict and Assistant Mike Farrare had the squad tight-fisted during the work-out. The team's weakness and faults were pointed out and solutions to remedy the same were stressed. According to the attitude of the squad New Castle will have real time on their hands next Friday night.

The only thing to spoil a fine day for the local team last Saturday was the injury to Jack Steckman and Bettioni, varsity left guard and right end respectively. Steckman broke a bone in his left hand and will be out of competition for at least six weeks. Bettioni received an injury to his knee that kept him from the game yesterday. He is expected to report today. There will be a couple of skull drills on tap for the local squad this week.

Included in the group were: Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Bowers, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kurtz and son Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Connair, Mrs. Amelia Connair, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kirker, Mrs. Lewis Bowers, Ruth Bowers and Mrs. Emma Smith, all of Beaver Falls; Mrs. Anna Black, Mrs. Gertrude Buquo, Mrs. William Buquo, all of Zelienople; Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Buquo, Mr. and Mrs. Dollsworth Buquo, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Herge, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Herge, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Weeber and daughter, Donna, Elita Rodgers, Clara and Fay Gordon, Frank Wimer and Harold Rodgers, all of Ellwood.

INJURES HAND
ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 19.—Mrs. Arthur Wehman of Smiley Stop had the misfortune to have her arm and wrist badly crushed yesterday morning. The accident occurred when she was running clothes through the wringer of an electric washer when her fingers were caught in the rolls and before the machine could be stopped her forearm was badly crushed. Although no bones were broken the injury is a very painful one.

STRONGER TODAY

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The stock market continued to be an irregular affair today with the metal shares moving higher, while the rails, utilities and some of the pivotal industrial shares again were easy.

Home stake again was an outstanding feature rising about half a dozen points and generally stimulating Alaska Juneau and Dome mines to renewed activity on the upside. The Copper mining shares were strong and fractionally higher on the news that Howe Sound had lifted its dividend rate to $1 from 40 cents.

Oil shares also were strong under the lead of Pure Oil, Standard Oil of California and New Jersey. Railroad shares showed further ease with New York Central, Lackawanna, Atchafalaya, Union Pacific and Chicago and North Western slipping from fractions to nearly a point.

United States Steel was again easy dipping fractionally and generally unsettling the rest of the group including Bethlehem.

The motors after opening lower steeled somewhat with Chrysler getting fractionally above its previous top.

Liquor shares were barely steady with National Distillers and Commercial Solvents holding in a narrow range around their previous finals.

The commodity markets were slightly easier with cotton down about 50 cents a bale and wheat off fractionally.

Election Troubles

Voting Machine Districts Are Source Of Trouble In Primary Balloting

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Sept. 19.—Scarcely had the polls in Allegheny county been opened today before stories of trouble began filtering into official headquarters from all sides. Demands for paper ballots in 52 districts where the much-heralded voting machines had been set up for the first time brought charges from Leo A. Riordan, chief of the County Bureau of Investigation, that "the delay must have been planned." The voting machines were reported broken down or unworkable in those districts. Riordan countered by explaining that each machine had undergone rigid tests.

Unfamiliarity of the voter with the machines only served to redouble the difficulties, both in these districts and in others where the machines were set up. Lack of power, inability of attendants to understand the mechanism, lack of curial—and dozens of similar reasons—were cited to the Election Bureau offices.

Approximately 510,000 voters are eligible to go to the polls. Pittsburgh is nominating candidates for mayor and five members of city council several judgeships, and other county offices are at stake in the county.

Firemen Save Township Home

TWO OUTBUILDINGS ARE DESTROYED

Central firemen saved the home of Harry McDaniels, of Union township, near Parkstown corners from destruction early Monday afternoon, after fire had destroyed a small cottage and wash house, closely adjoining the home in the rear with a loss of around $500. The loss is protected by insurance. Firemen received a call for assistance about 1:20 and made a hurried trip to the scene of the blaze in the Pirsch truck, accompanied by Assistant Chief Thomas, arriving in time to prevent the blaze from consuming the two small structures from communicating to the house.

The origin of the fire is not known. It had gained considerable headway in the small outbuildings when discovered. But for the prompt action of the firemen, the home too, would probably have been destroyed.

Weekly Health Talk

"The ever-increasing number of persons in Pennsylvania dying from cancer justifies a warning at this time against cancer quacks and so-called cancer cures. While newspapers do not carry advertisements of this type, there are many other ways by which misinformation emanating from 'cancer experts' reaches the public. Undoubtedly there are many persons who, being thus deceived from seeking proper advice, unnecessarily become cancer victims, while others not having cancer in the first instance, are fleeced out of much money for 'cure' states Dr. Theodore B. Appel, State Secretary of Health.
"It should be definitely understood that there are but two possible methods of treating cancer. First, by surgery, and second, by irradiation, that is to say, by the use of radium or X-ray. Moreover, to be effective, assuming that the case has been diagnosed sufficiently early, treatment must be in the hands of highly trained and competent surgeons.
"Surgery is relied upon to remove cancerous tumors. This method of treatment is used in nearly two-thirds of all cancers. Irradiation by means of X-ray or radium, is used to advantage in fully one-third of the cases. And frequently surgery and irradiation are successfully combined. Incidentally, a cancer operation is considered to be successful if there be no recurrence at the end of a five year period.
"It is plain, therefore, that self-medication is a waste of time and is frequently fatal because of the delay involved. By the same token, serums, vaccines, colored lights, pastes, salves and diets are valueless.
"After all, the great bulwark against cancer is early diagnosis. Every case is an emergency. And in this connection it is unfortunately true that eighty percent of the patients who seek advice at cancer clinics, to say nothing of those who consult private physicians, are beyond permanent cure.
"It follows that hope should not be placed in fake cancer prophets and their treatments. Rather, the annual physical examination and an immediate reporting to a physician of any symptoms which may reasonably be suspected to be the beginning of cancer should be relied upon. Those symptoms are any unusual bleeding from any bodily opening, any lump in the breast or other part of the body, any persistent sore, particularly on the face or mouth, and chronic indigestion.
"While such conditions may not be cancer, on the other hand they sometimes are the forerunners of the more common types of this dread malady and should not be temporized with. Quick action is quite definitely in order.
"Where cancer or a suspicion of cancer, exists, the injunction, Do not put trust in false Gods, most emphatically applies."
